The 12th person on your list was convicted of killing seven people in 1992 as a part of a drug dealing related killing spree.

I couldn't identify his victim's names.

I wish I could.

Because we should say them. (/12)

The 13th and final person on your list kidnapped and murdered three women within one year.

They were 19 y/o Tamika Black, 21 y/o Tanji Jackson, and 23 y/o Mishann Chinn.

Say these young women's names. (/13)

There are legitimate reasons to oppose the death penalty.

I don't trust that the justice system is infallible. It's possible some of these individuals are innocent.

As a Christian, I also believe in forgiveness even for the most heinous of crimes. (/14)

So oppose the death penalty if you want. But don't make these people into martyrs for your crusade against Donald Trump.

No, they're criminals who stole the lives of many innocent people in horrifying fashion.

They're human. But they're criminals who need to face justice. (/15)
