@DrBenKatz

Hello!
I'm finishing up my dissertation now and am on the US post-doc market in clinical psychology so I'd appreciate any leads.

My interests are reinforcement sensitivity, depression/anxiety, and LGBTQ+ mental health.

Shameless thread of recent accomplishments below:

First of all, feel free to visit my website at https://t.co/DK3AaggRJ4 for my CV and online lectures and articles. Here are twitter threads about some of them from this past year

Here's a meta-analysis on bipolar disorder and reinforcement sensitivity theory: https://t.co/3hjvSNL8qO

Here's a thread about a conference on LGBT+ and Orthodox Judaism that I chaired (Hebrew with English subtitles):
https://t.co/rv5LTcYfaV

In Sept '19, I chaired Jerusalem's first ever conference on LGBTQ+, Orthodox Judaism, and mental health at @HebrewU.

We purposely catered the content to the needs in the field and people responded. Around 200 therapists, from across the religious spectrum, attended. (2/9) pic.twitter.com/t7iWOivJ09
