

Twitter Thread by Sub-Pharmacist■

Sub-Pharmacist■

@Tobenna

18 Interesting Things About Vitamin E you should know

1. Vitamin E is also known as “Tocopherol”.
2. Taking vitamin E by mouth will help reduce anxiety, depression and cravings in some women with PMS (Premenstrual syndrome).

A THREAD

RT

3. It increases the level of testosterone as such increases sex drive.
4. The required daily intake (RDA) of vitamin E is 15mg(22 IU) for both man and woman.

5. In men, vitamin E increases sperm count and sperm motility. Also, taking it by mouth improves pregnancy rates for men with fertility problems.

6. DO NOT CRUSH OR CHEW VITAMIN E CAPSULES.

7. Taking vitamin E together with vit C can help improve vision.

8. It has antioxidant properties and helps the nerves work well.

9. You can be allergic to it and toxicity due to overdosage of vitamin E is possible.

10. The side effects of vitamin E are rare but they include

-Nausea

-Diarrhea

11. It is a fat soluble vitamin.

12. In older people, it can help strengthen the muscles and boost physical strength.

13. Taking vitamin E 2days before menstruation starts can help decrease pain and reduce menstrual blood loss.

14. Vitamin E increases the effects and side effects of cyclosporine as such should not be taken with it.

15. Vitamin E also increase the rate at which the liver breaks down certain drugs as such consult your healthcare provider if you are to take vitamin E with any other drug.

16. Vitamin E should not be taken together with drugs meant to lower cholesterol level.

17. Vitamin E (especially high dose) should not be taken together with Aspirin, Warfarin, Ibuprofen, diclofenac. This is because vitamin E can interfere with blood clotting as such can lead to easy bruising and bleeding when taken with those drugs which act as a blood thinner.

18. About the conversion of vitamin E from (IU) to mg

1 IU of the natural form is equivalent to 0.67mg of alpha- tocopherol(vit E).

Therefore, converting the required IU value of 22 IU to mg is equivalent to 15mg.

To get daily interesting facts about drugs and lifestyle tips, hit the follow button

Natural sources of vitamin E include

Avocado, soybean oil, peanuts, spinach, almonds and mango.