Twitter Thread by Queen of Trolls

Queen of Trolls
@trolls_queen

Good morning @jidesanwoolu, how is your health now Sir? Thank God you are looking well and alive. We are grateful to God.

We want to bring to your remembrance the End SARS terrorist attack in Lagos on October 20, 2020. A lot are not satisfied with the responses from Lagos State.

The US version has an unprecedented response at the moment. Over 57 have been arrested and the appropriate charges have been proffered against them.

Just a few have been apprehended here and their arraignment has been a slap on the wrist, because it looks like a joke!

@BBCAfrica did a short and pregnant article, listing out the lives that were lost and the properties that were wantonly wasted in Lagos State.

Let's review them, Sir.

To many, these are disturbing images. Very disturbing till date.

When are the terrorists going to be ALL arrested and prosecuted, Sir?

@jidesanwoolu
@followlasg
@Mr_JAGss
@rrslagos767

While we appreciate the fact that you are all for due process and following the books, we are not satisfied with the silence.

Our long suffering is waning. Just the sight of this carnage is vexing to the blind!

The investigation and prosecution should not be left to the outcome of the Judicial Panel alone. Some of the arsonists ought to have been rounded up by now.

The murderers of the policemen are walking free and pissing on our faces on social media. This is unacceptable, Sir!

To make matters worse, Rinu who actively participated in the INCITEMENT of these violence is still a member of the Judicial Panel, and she has not been arrested and prosecuted.

No, this is completely unacceptable. No explanation will excuse this gaffe. None, Sir. @jidesanwoolu

Certain girls who got strange sponsorship to pay thugs and arsonists to burn down choice properties of Lagos State and the FG are gallivanting and saying nonsense about the government freely in @CNN and some local TV stations.

When are you going to have them arrested, Sir?

More disturbing imagines.

One nose ridiculous thing you did, Sir. The Speaker of the House of Representatives, Mr. Femi @femigbaja and your good self enabled these idiots to perpetuate these destruction my hobnobbing with them on national TV, "appealing" & "pleading". Really?

This silence is one that many are questioning.

Why has the Lagos State government remained silent despite all the resources she has to get these terrorists and arraigned in court?

Why wait for the outcome of the Judicial Panel before all of them are brought to justice? Why?

We have gone into the 4th month and we have not seen the culprits being arrested and prosecuted. We won't accept any excuse for this delay, Sir. @jidesanwoolu

Lagos State has gone too far technology wise to seem as if she cannot go after the idiots that did these crimes

The victims need justice.
The government needs justice.
The society needs justice.
The world needs to know what went down on October 20, 2020.

We want their names and entire data. We want them all in court facing appropriate charges.

Lagos must heal from this pain.

The American experience have once again brought to the fore the need to get justice. We must get justice.

The world is waiting for us to do the needful. No one can silence us until justice is done for the victim and the society.

@jidesanwoolu
@MBuhari
@ProfOsinbajo