Did you know Mongols nearly wiped out izlam & liberated Persia & Mesopotamia from their clutches?
Mongol named Temujin in his early 40s had risen to the title of Genghis Khan/ Oceanic Khan because of his bravery & warfare skills,he ruled Karakorum on the banks of Onon river

> Due to Mongol upheavel in Khurasan, 40 Muslim refugee rulers with entourage & slaves from Turkistan, Rum/ Turkey, Sham/ Syria, Khurasan, Persia, Azarbaijan, flocked Bharatvarsh!
> Delhi became Dar-ul-izlam
> Ulama & the Mashaikh weren\u2019t satisfied since total \U0001f1ee\U0001f1f3 wan\u2019t converted yet!

Genghis travelled 4k miles from Mongolia to Baghdad to avenge the cruel & foul tactics used by Turko-Persian muzlim Khwarazmian empire of Samarkand to convert Mongols,Turks,Uzbeks,Tajiks,
Kazaks,Persian Zoroastrians
Nestorian Christians & Chinese from the 7th- 13th century.

Mongols had never invaded anyone before muzlims emasculated them, cut open their bellies,hacked them to pieces,dragged them through streets,killed them for sport & entertainment.
Mongols in revenge, slaughtered them far more ruthlessly by millions at Tabriz,Shiraz & Baghdad.

By 1225, Genghis Khan ruled everything between the Caspian Sea & Beijing. At age 65, while leading the war against Tangut, Genghis fell off his horse & died in 1227.
His grandson Hulagu Khan Khan defeated Caliph Musta'sim & burned everything in Baghdad.

The caliphate that had lasted 525 years with 37 Caliphs starting with Abu Bakr came to an end as if it was a retribution for torturing & humiliating the Persian Emperor Yazdgard in 637 in the same city then called Ctesiphon.

Hulagu confiscated the stacked mountainous piles of Caliph's possessions looted constantly over 600 years from Persia, Bharatvarsh- Central Asia, North Africa, Spain.. Caliph’s mosque, Musa-Jawad shrine & tombs in Rusafa were burned down.

Caliph was wrapped in a carpet & stomped to death by Hulagu’s cavalry, caliph’s sons & relatives were stuffed into barrels with protruding nails, & were rolled down a slope of a hill.
Hulagu spared Caliph’s younger son & married him to a Mongol woman with whom he had 2 sons.

Since the Mongols had captured Bagdad, they sheathed their swords & let everything & every life be normal..
Mongol women were married to captured muzslims & muzlim women were married to Mongol warriors, a huge mistake that Halagu Khan had made!

Izlam made a back door entry into the Mongol camp!
Muslims began to re-organize themselves waiting for Mongols to lower their guard!
The mauzie wives influenced their Mongol warriors husbands & converted them. After Hulagu’s death, the next generation openly turned izlsmic.

It was these converted Mongols/ Mughals (derived from Mongol) who invaded Bharatvarsh!
Around Temur’s birth a hundred years after Genghis, Chaghatay Ulus has split into two, Mawarannahr to the west & Moghulistan ruled by another branch of Chaghatay family.
