1/ Super Happy Fun America's Sue Ianni has a Crystal Transport bus taking the Straight Pride group to Washington, DC, for 1/6/21, where they attacked protesters in July 2019.

Call Crystal Transport at 617-787-1544 and ask them not to support hate.

2/ Super Happy Fun America has a long history of violence.

Last time they traveled to DC, one of their members, Brandon Sullivan, threatened Black Lives Matter activists and attacked an antifascist who tried to deescalate.

THREAD: A previously unidentified man at the 7/6 Rally for Free Speech in DC threatened BLM protesters and punched an antifascist.

His name is Brandon Sullivan, of Arlington, MA, and he was with Super Happy Fun America, the group sponsoring the Straight Pride Parade in Boston. pic.twitter.com/KEKMeR7ZMW

3/ In July 2019, Brandon traveled to DC with Super Happy Fun America organizer Samson Racioppi, and SHFA and Patriot Saints associate Danny Gilbertson.

7/ In a livestream on the drive back to Massachusetts, Super Happy Fun America's Samson Racioppi (on the left, sunglasses and green shirt) asks Brandon about the incident, who admits that he was in a "scuffle," but curiously declines to elaborate on the details. pic.twitter.com/0MMDO0hr6E

4/ Super Happy Fun America has a long history of violence.

Under their former name in 2018, Resist Marxism, they hosted a rally in Providence where 16 Proud Boys providing "security" crossed a police line to attack protesters.

<https://t.co/G73eAlcgdM>

5/ They planned a return to Providence in the spring of 2019. Their private chats were leaked, showing violent hate groups like the Proud Boys and the American Guard trading pictures of the weapons they planned to assault activists with.

6/ One member of their security team, Wilbert Leroy "Shaun" Hufton, planned to assassinate me at the rally, even choosing the caliber of weapon he'd use.

7/ Nonetheless, several months later, Super Happy Fun America asked Hufton to be part of the personal security detail they arranged for Straight Pride Parade Grand Marshal Milo Yiannopoulos.

8/ The people of Washington, DC, are seeing violent far-right groups travel from out-of-state to attack residents.

Super Happy Fun America is one of those groups, and they're using Crystal Charters.

Call 617-787-1544 and urge them not to do business with violent hate groups.

9/ The bus leaves Newton, MA at 7:45 p.m. EST tonight, so if you're seeing this before then, call Crystal Charters at 617-787-1544 and urge them not to support a violent hate group like Super Happy Fun America.

10/ The police won't protect us here. In December, they watched as the Proud Boys attacked residents of DC and vandalized a Black church.

Who protects us?

We protect us.

11/ UPDATE: Crystal Transport tells me that the bus has been cancelled.

Thank you to everyone who called! Your phone calls mean that one fewer bus of violent chuds is going to DC tomorrow.

This is exactly what I mean when I say that we protect us.
