Their involvement with 'lawless acts' now ranged from armed dacoities like the Sonarpur Dacoity case and the Guinea

Mansion Dacoity case, to armed hold ups, house burglaries, smuggling, petty snatching and thefts. 7/9

Many of Gopal's followers continued to nurse a deep communal antipathy towards Muslims and were 'energetic participants' in the 1950 communal clash in Calcutta. A section of Gopal's Bahini also developed a close association with the Congress party. 8/9

But others like Ram Chatterjee became involved with Left politics and at one time served as a minister in the Left Front government." 9/9
