The whole so called Farmers Protest is To divide Hindus and Sikhs Just like they did in 1984. Congress created Bhindrandwale and they themselves never expected him to become a "Frankenstein"

Using Brute Force against the Farm Unions is playing in the hands of the left loonies. The moment Delhi Police used brute force, articles will ne ready about how

"A Hindu Govt Attacked poor, unarmed Annadata Punjabi Farmers"

Something on the Lights of Dyer also

This is will help the lobbyists to create and widen the gap between Hindus and Sikhs. One must never forget that Sikhs have sacrificed and fought against the Tyranny of the Desert Cult. It is a Sin to brand all Sikhs and Punjabis as Khalistanis.

Using Brute Force against the Alleged Farmers is Tempting in the short run having grave and dangerous long run circumstances. Even the Congress Govt in 1984 was facing similar protest on the issue to lower Electricity Rates, Subsidy in Fodder, subsidy for compost etc.

So to Divert the attention, Sanjay Gandhi and Kamalnath came up with this idea of Sponsoring an extremist and to destabilize the then Akali and Janta Party Govt. So they made "Sant" Bhindrandwale.

At one point even The Congress regretted sponsoring him and funding him because he became out of control for Congress.

Kamalnath said "We would give him money off and on, but we never thought he would turn into a terrorist."

Moving forward. It might look One Step forward and Two steps backward but this embarrassment or whatever you call it ensures that there's no 1994 type Bloodbath (and this word is an understatement)

Hindus and Sikhs are one. Sikhs being against Hindus is like Hindus cutting their own hand. The Hindu community CANNOT afford to lose sikhs at all.

So Trust Modi. He knows what he has to do. Better than all of us combined. Because for us it just takes a couple of tweets.
