My father was about to lose his cool the moment he learned that I've 19 odd Credit Cards. ■

PS - I don't have any EMIs or Debt, all cards are having almost NIL outstanding.

It's just all CC serves different purposes and helped me save more than 100k in savings and rewards.

Well, I'm not alone in this game. There are few other folks who're holding more than 15-20 different CCs.

Our legend @flywithsid is one of them, you can check out his Tweets world famous blog (https://t.co/0qKBMCSA4s)
