THAT Kashmir is an internationally recognized dispute Is an UNDENIABLE historical fact.
AS THINGS STAND AT THE MOMENT, India’s mighty
military power can’t change it.
No movement loses
its legitimacy because of sham elections being held in Kashmir.

India even did not consider Kashmir's PM Sheikh Abdullah as legitimate leader which is why Indian govt.toppled his govt .in a military coup in 1953.He had become after 1st controversial elections held in 1951 India didn't stop here. It kept him in jail for 22 long years
