1 Crore term plans have become quite popular these days - after all, it just costs INR 400 per month for a huge 1 Crore life cover, right?

WRONG!

'1 Crore' might look good on paper but when you actually do the math, you'll realize that it won't be sufficient for your family.

So, how do you calculate the appropriate cover amount? And what should you do if you're not eligible for the amount you need?
