While as many as 254 Kashmiri Pandits have joined government service in Jammu and Kashmir since a special package was announced for the displaced community by the Centre in 2015, in 2008 under the Manmohan Singh govt, a similar employment package had ensured 1,474 State government jobs were provided to the migrant youth.

Now, under the Prime Minister's Development Package (PMDP) announced by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on November 7, 2015, the government approved creation of 3,000 additional State government jobs for Pandits at a cost of Rs. 1,080 crore.

These details were revealed by the Union Home Ministry, in reply to a parliamentary standing committee on relief and rehabilitation provided to Kashmiri Pandits, said that "till date, appointment orders to 528 candidates have been issued and 254 have joined duties."

Cash Relief and Monthly Ration:
