If you are a car buff, then this interview tells you things that even you have probably not thought of when it comes to imagining what the future holds .. (and yes, some interesting dope on the role of software and the ways to deal with talent crunch) #TalkingPoint

> Talking Point | KPIT's CTO Anup Sable speaks to @_nirajshah on company's tech support for automobile industry & how cars would transform into consumer devices from vehicles of mobility. #BQLive https://t.co/5hCWwTRymT
