Some 240 people have been arrested, mostly in Amsterdam, after riots broke out in at least 10 cities across the Netherlands on Sunday evening.

Trouble first flared in Amsterdam and Eindhoven, where anti-coronavirus measure protestors turned up to demonstrate even though the gatherings had been banned.

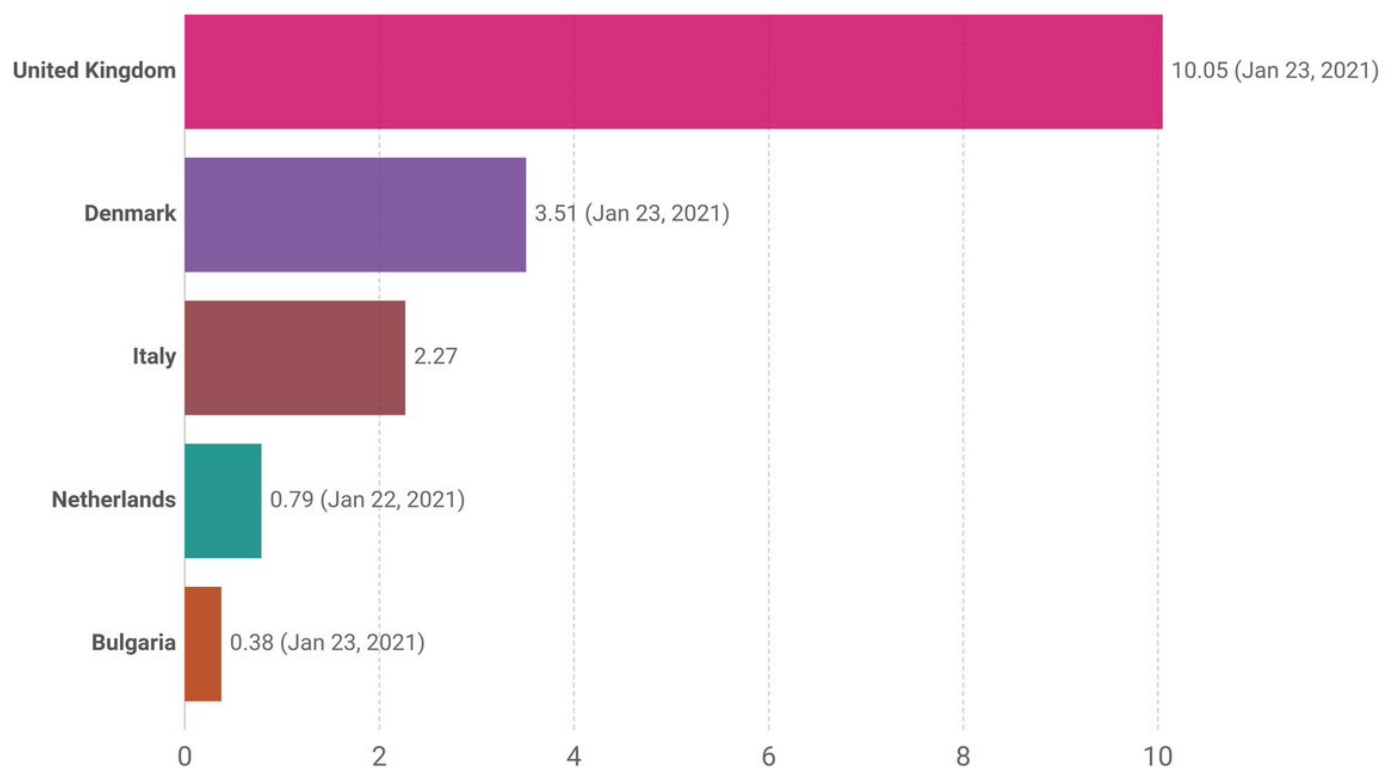

Dozens of youngsters, many honking horns in cars and on mopeds, went to the village's harbour area just after the 9pm deadline and set the drive-in coronavirus test centre on fire.

Great place to be if you're afraid of needles.

Cumulative COVID-19 vaccination doses administered per 100 people, Jan 24, 2021

This is counted as a single dose, and may not equal the total number of people vaccinated, depending on the specific dose regime (e.g. people receive multiple doses).

And of course its world famous cycling culture.

The tolerance and directness of its people.

Anti-lockdown protests in Holland

Its wildlife. Here a loose police horse running through Eindhoven.

Its VOC mentality.

Its great offer of performance art.
