Thread. Out of Twitmo, convenient was it not? That the week of 6 Jan 2020 this account was twitmo'd?
First I want to thank God for utilizing @joyinliberty to crowd source my historic adventure in the Communist District formerly known as Washington D.C.

The narratives coming out of the "Storm the Capital" march are wildly insane. On all sides
1. @GOP @GOPLeader @senatemajldr @SenateGOP @JohnCornyn showed their colors. They betrayed us, again, as expected. We see all of them now.

2. Media, of course taking the Chyna money, has been more than happy to gleefully spin their demons upon us. An early victory lap. I had my run ins with them. Running into one, I said to one of the guys, "Look at that face diaper on her face! Showing off to her CCP masters?"

She glared her hate at me, I gave her my winsome smile. smile

3. Democrats, libturds, and resisturds all lost their minds. Grabbing mics, phones, computers etc.. To virtue signal their fear and "outrage" its beautiful.

4. Speaking of virtue signalling, the @GOP were the worst. Bought and paid for. They had the opportunity to flip the script and own a glorious moment, to throw it up in the lefts face. But spinlessly they play PC wokery, and "condemned " their own constituents. Benedict A.

5. Trap. We communicated amongst ourselves and other patriot groups via radio. Shirtless horn fella was not seen around the Elipse location. Or on the west side of the capital building. There were no eyes on the east side

East side we have video of Antifa being ushered in.

NPR reported that "riots" started at 0930. MAGA was still on the lawn at the Elipse and Monument. And did not march to capital until after 1200.

So my point in all this. We went to the Communist District formerly known as Washington DC. And we rattled their cage. Atifa may have began the taking of the capital, and Capital Police allowed it.
But we MAGA took part, it was glorious. Rinos, and PC.

Deny it. Bad move. We have no voice. And they are throwing us under the bus. We took the capital, be proud Patriots, do not let the PC minded azzwipes deny it or rebuke it. Like Jesus, we went in and turned tables. Do not let the media win.

The left, right, all can suck it. This is our America. To deny it, is to deny 1776, 1812, 1860. This was for our freedom, for America. Twitter has purged 1000s, to silence us, to take away our rights, to suppress dissent to the rulling class.

They can rant and rave all they like. Just shows their true colors.
