

Twitter Thread by ZLHR

ZLHR

@ZLHRLawyers

After a long wait, proceedings against @advocatamahere finally commence in Courtroom No. 11 before Magistrate Utahwashe.

We are also with @advocatamahere at Harare Magistrates Court where remand proceedings against her are yet to commence.

— ZLHR (@ZLHRLawyers) January 12, 2021

David Drury tells Magistrate Utahwashe that the State can't make a "Lazarus" resurrection to a law which is non-existent.

Prosecutor Muchemwa tells Magistrate Utahwashe that the State is sticking to allegations contained in the charge sheet and applies for @advocatamahere to be placed on remand.

@advocatamahere's lawyers challenge State bid to place her on remand.

Drury says he is interested in knowing the identity of the woman who was allegedly roughed up by @PoliceZimbabwe.

Drury tells Magistrate Utahwashe that there is nothing illegal about @advocatamahere tweets.

In strange submissions, Prosecutor Muchemwa says section 20 of the former Constitution is worded differently with section 61 of the current Constitution hence section 31 (a)(i) & section 31(a)(iii) is still valid.

Magistrate Utahwashe orders State to investigate complaints raised by @advocatamahere & furnish court with a report by Friday 15 January 2021.

Advocate Mahere will spend 3 days in prison custody to Friday when Magistrate Utahwashe will hand down his ruling on her application challenging state bid to place her on remand.