as much as i LOVE girls, i also love boys? boys are amazing and pure and liking them is a wonderful feeling? i never see a lot of posts talking about cute boys so some boy aesthetic i'm in love with include:

their tired grins? have you seen a cute boy grin when he’s tired? life changing sleeves rolled up to forearms is all good and well but also when they have sweater paws in their hoodies or jumpers? Makes the tallest of them seem so smol? i’m in love?

when they run their hand through their hair and it sticks up in places and it looks so good collar bones

soft pudgy stomachs they absolutely make me melt when boys get flustered & A++ bonus points if he giggles boys giggling is everything that small teasing smirk when they say something they know you like falling on top of them when they’re asleep and they just very softly go oof when the jump up some place high and sit and lean down to kiss you cuddles their fucking cuddles man messy hair

when they try to be tough but they're soft getting so into a song that they can convince you anything is a Jam when they get excited over a meal you cooked kissing the back of your hand when it’s an unknown number and they put on their phone voice blowing their hair out of the way when it gets long watching them talking passionately to someone else and see their expression change 3 times a second when they prank you and laugh real hard but you’re like “joke’s on you because i get to hear your cute laugh” boys getting passionate about nerd stuff?? priceless boys fidgeting, boys playing with objects in their hands or worrying blades of grass or doing anything stimmy??? perfect boys jumping up to touch the ceiling why do they do that i don’t know boys. who. read. if i see you reading in public i will probably propose to you on the spot boys who are good with animals?

BOYS WHO ARE GOOD WITH KIDS

boys who make dumb jokes and laugh at their own jokes. i love them boys doodling. jsjsjdndjsjxndndkxjxnx boys randomly putting together a game in like 5 minutes bc they’re bored and getting SUPER INTO IT and all their friends have taken sides and are cheering and playfully shouting insults??

why are y’all always so down to play and have fun and why are y’all so passionate all the time i don’t know but i like it (for real y’all will just make a game out of the dumbest and most random things and get SO into it and it’s pure) boys who are like too tall to fit in the ceiling theres something cute about that you look like you don’t know where you’re supposed to be and gravity is confusing and i get you but short boys? amazing!!

boys lounging on counters or tables or rails or anywhere that’s not meant to be lounged upon? i love it boys talking about the things they love boys listening to you talk about the things you love boys making jokes with their friends that make. no sense what are you saying my friend i will never know

boys smi,,le

smile at y o u (i cri)

that little laugh they do when they don’t know what to say to that insane thing you just said that innocent smile boys wear after they do something mischievous and are trying not to get caught boys spouting off facts that relate to the topic randomly in conversation,, and u just look at them like dang. that’s really cool how do you know that??

boys sending you a good night/good morning message every day without fail■ cute inside jokes with boys that they always bring up or casually mention when you had almost forgotten it boys writing handwritten letters or poems are just so wholesome and a d o r a b l e they become friends over the silliest things and the solidarity is real hugging a boy way taller than you? ■■ hugging a boy as tall or shorter than you? also ■■ the way they praise you when you help them in something they were struggling with ■ singing or dancing together because they’re just feeling it/flexing - immaculate complicated handshakes? wholesome

when they do something dumb or even dangerous but somehow make it out unscathed and the whole point was to show love to someone

the way they talk when they’re sleepy, I’ll never get over it whether it’s a toddler or a grown man when they get speechless kind stranger boys who can have a good conversation? Angels collaborating with them and they’re invested in it? doesn’t matter what the project is, the experience is immediately more fun when they stand up for themselves❤■ when they've recently had a haircut and the edges are nice and clean long haired boys looking like ethereal princes boys who a c c e s s o r i z e when they show a side of them that is very different than usual but absolutely charming when they use funny voices having them check in on you even if it's been a long time when they remember a detail about you and it's so considerate and you just feel seen being adopted by a group of boys is literally the best, 10/10 would recommend boys and their willingness to forever lend you their pockets (and their hands) to keep your phone, wallet, lip balm in.

boys and their awe when you feed them fancy food they haven't heard of, and the next time,,,,, they have forgotten the name or can barely pronounce it, but will tell you that it was amazing and name the one ingredient they remember, and you will know and feed them again boys offering their man protection services (india can....

be horribly unsafe for girls okay) so you and your friends can get up to all the reckless shit you wanna do i am out of thoughts now, add some more■ aa just boys you know they're so,,, cute i hope every boy who sees this has an amazing day ily ily ily
