One liners (II): a thread of cheap thrills

Kink is how women sublimate the desire for patriarchy

You chase after sex objects as proxies for love objects

A woman challenges her man, a man squeezes a woman’s ass, both desire to feel firm flesh

Women are people, so what? If anything this is a license to treat them badly

Never trust an anti-natalist, or anyone with an evolutionary lifevest

Having children is the only true immortality, the only true salvation

Self-awareness and self-confidence are opposite ends of a spectrum

Learning is a kind of prurience; teaching a kind of ravishment, ignorance a kind of virginity; twitter a kind of brothel

Hunger for insight prevents you from acting on insight; imagining action prevents you from taking action

Contentment is supposed to be fleeting

Everyone has mental stopsigns, charging past them always hurts

You only like honesty when it’s aimed at your enemies

Self-righteousness is the second worst of all vices

You can’t have progress without telos

“Consent of the governed” already looks more irrational than “divine right of kings”

In a democracy, good and evil can only be conceived in political terms

Nothing is your fault, everything is your responsibility

"Inalienable human rights" is the lowest form of moral discourse

It is given to no man, no matter how revolutionary, to differ from his era

Two irreconcilable relations to evil: fearing the evil within the walls, fearing the evil without

Every generation thinks the end of the world will come in their time

The collapse will not be dramatic

No one buys Accelerationism in a bear market

Every market is somewhat rigged; too much competition destroys all sellers

Social Facetune will be the killer app for smart glasses

Even when it’s affected, your online persona has fewer affectations

Deepfakes of your political opponents saying the n word

Euphemism treadmills are a tax on the middle class

Social sanction to say forbidden words is the privilege of the untouchable caste
