The highest Rina (Debt) is the one we owe to our mother. The mother is the provider of nourishment, both physical and emotional. Have you ever wondered what the mother gives up/undergoes? 1/n

The mother gives up her youth to give birth which changes her physically, emotionally, and physiologically. The body goes through immense changes permanently. The mother never demands anyone in the family to acknowledge all this. She just gives till she passes away

The mother is the Moon and gets exalted in the natural 2nd house of feeding. This is the happiest state of the mother. The moon owns the natural 4th of domestic peace and harmony. 3/n

The great Jupiter (the guru of the devas) chooses the home of the mother to get exalted. The Mother has the power to summon the greatest of the gurus. One who does not take care of his/her mother has no chance of the guru's blessings. 4/n

The highest state of the moon is Shri Krishna. How can anyone hope to get Shri Krishna's blessings if the mother is unhappy? 5/n

Children, relatives, and people can be bad in behavior, but never the mother. 6/n

Let us look at how heavy the Mother rina (Matru Rina) is mathematically. A mother protects the baby for 9 months (and 9 days). This is 270 human days. When the mother passes away, the soul's one day equals 1 year of human time. One human year = 1 day of the devas. 7/n

The famous Taittiriya Upanishad teaches - ■■■■ ■■■■ ■■■ ■■■■ ■■■■ ■■■ ■■■■■■■ ■■■■ ■■■ ■■■■■■ ■■■■ ■■■. ■■■■ ■■■■ ■■ always comes first. 8/n

Many people complain about a negative Shani and do all sorts of expensive remedies without any results. The best way to propitiate Shani (and indeed all the grahas) is to touch the feet of the mother after waking up.
