LAGOS TERRORIST ATTACK, THE MISSING CNN/BBC DOCUMENTARY

They have the documentary of how Lagos was attacked by terrorists on the 21st of October 2020 in a well coordinated way, they're only hiding it for now. @CNN operating ILLEGALLY in Nigeria is keeping this away from viewers!

Giving the breakdown of the Economic cost of the SORO SOKE EndSARS protest at Lagos Business School, the loss was estimated way above $12 billion. The entire economy of Rwanda as a Nation is less than that.
This terrorist attack was well coordinated especially by CELEBRITIES!

Economic Cost of the Protests

Direct cost (increase in negative GDP growth)	≈	$12.0bn
Import cost (2 weeks)	≈	$1.8bn
Inventory replacement and opportunity cost (est.)	≈	$5.0bn
Estimated total cost	≈	$18.8bn

The International Media platform @CNN @CNNAfrica @cnni used their go-between folks @StephanieBusari @nimaelbagir & @IshaSesay to coordinate this terrorist attack in Nigeria, specifically using Lagos being the Economic Capital to bring crisis. @BBCAfrica was complacent also.

The Economic Cost of the Protests

- ✓ Nigerian stock market capitalization is N15.96trn with average daily turnover of N5.9bn
- ✓ The average inventory level of Nigerian FMCGs is 12 weeks in the quarter preceding Xmas
- ✓ Destruction of fixed assets, real estate and inventory is not typically covered by insurance (civil commotion and riots)
- ✓ 80% of Nigerian imports are cleared through Apapa & Tincan Island
- ✓ Nigerian imports for 2020 are estimated by EIU at $43.9bn

If you Insist this was not a well coordinated terrorist attacks, there are questions asked by Dr @fimiletoks, Please answer it LIVE on @CNN @cnni @BBCAfrica

1. Tell us the end game for the protest when all their demands were met.

Was SARS dissolved AS AT 11th October? #5For5?

SARS banned: Nigeria Police don dissolve Special Anti-Robbery Squad [SARS]

11 October 2020

2. If the plan was not to throw the country into chaos & effect a regime change why keeping the protest on especially in Lagos, when everything they asked for was done?
3. What was supposed to bring an end to their protest?
4. What would have made you guys leave the road?

5. Why did you remain outside & in ONE PARTICULAR SPOT for 4 hours after the curfew was declared at about 11:49AM on 20th Oct?
6. Why didn't you leave even after the gov addressed YOU twice & you saw trouble brewing after police stations were burnt & @PoliceNG lynched in Lagos?

So, to get this Lagos terrorist attack in motion unhindered, the first thing was to blackmail the @HQNigerianArmy & your DJ Switch, Godson etc were on ground while your celebrities online were also posting FAKE NEWS of those killed. They prepared free pass for the attacks...
