Much of Twitter is misunderstanding Bruce Castor's speech at Trump's impeachment trial because much of Twitter is absolutely NOT Bruce Castor's audience.

This man is on it. He knows he only needs to keep *over 1/3 with him. Then more so, he needs the American nation on his side.

Honestly, Twitter misunderstanding what Bruce Castor is doing right now is like Twitter misunderstanding how Brexit & Trump won back then

"Why fear the people who were smart enough to pick you?" (Listen)

And yes, ditto for David Schoen. He knows who his audience is.

And he's on target.

Two different audiences
1) Castor: public opinion
2) Schoen: the law

Oooooh, he held up the Red book. OUCH ■■

Schoen has landed multiple legal blows.

Schoen clearly came in after playing "Mama said knock you out" on loop

Schoen just knocked out Apollo Creed in Rocky II

Rasking just waived his 30 mins right to rebuttal to all that? Wow.

Early indicator:
56-44 voted to proceed.

So 44 voted not to proceed, which is more than 1/3 objectors needed to acquit, as an indicator.
