Thread on White House Transition process:

On March 4th 1801 the second president of the United States - John Adams - refused to hand over office to his main rival at the 1800 election, Thomas Jefferson.

The rule of "midday January 20" had not yet been written.

Despite his stubbornness, THE OFFICE SIMPLY LEFT HIM!

Adams was the first president to reside at the new official residence

After Jefferson's swearing in - which the incumbent refused to attend - White House staff began removing Adam's belongings from the WH.

All security organs ended all official communication.

All presidential staff stopped taking instructions from Adams – THE OFFICE MOVED.

Since then, all WH incumbents prepare early to leave in case they see signs of losing, to avoid humiliation by the independent organs of state.

The Military, The secret Service, The CIA, FBI and all White House staff, all operate under a code - that of serving a man/woman who has carried the WILL of the people at an election.

Biden has clinched the 270 votes, and when he is officially declared president by all returning officers in the states, the following is going to happen:

1- The secret service divides its attention between the incumbent at the incoming President.

2- CIA begins to brief both (including top secret intelligence which is traditionally reserved for one individual-the commander in chief)

3- The counter intelligence teams of the CIA also begin to brief both

4- White House staff begin to prepare to re-do the house in-line with the taste of the president elect.

5- At Midday on January 20, White House staff remove all his belongings from the house and bring in the belongings of the new president (they wait for no one's instructions)

6- The deductions for White House rent on Trump's salary stops in January

7- The deductions for White House rent begins on Joe Biden's presidential salary in January

8- Melania Trump stops being the White House boss on January 20 at midday

9- Dr. Jill Biden becomes the White House boss on January 20 at midday

10- At midday on January 20, all the power organs of the US cease official communication with Trump:
The pentagon
The CIA
The FBI
The Attorney General

The secret service maintains minimal communication since it is going to guard the x-president all his life.

11- The BEAST (presidential limo) and AIR FORCE ONE (presidential plane) salute Trump for the last time and shift their attention to Biden.

The BEAST starts the tradition of carrying Biden's blood samples.

Without instructions from any one!
It has been so for over 200 years.
