Allow us to now begin to share just some of the things we have been collecting for years in anticipation of this moment.

Let's begin with MAGA life coach Brenden Dilley, brimming with confidence the day before the election as he predicted a 45 state landslide for Trump.

And here is Dilley guaranteeing that Democrats "are going to get their asses kicked on Nov. 3"

And here is Dilley boldly predicting that the election would be called on Election Night before the polls even closed in California because "Joe Biden cannot beat Donald J. Trump."
