I like Stephen but I'll bite...

I saw a question asking what data and I answered him. I would gladly share the data & methodology. But I guess I am one of those lowly anons...

> before accepting calculations from anonymous (or even non-anymous) sources, insist on a citation to original data so that it can be checked. I'm told (but haven't seen reference by Werise) that this comes from NYT json data https://t.co/6SD5ENF137. I'll comment on this data. pic.twitter.com/nqphPoqTa6
