Election Fraud, Insurrection Act, Martial Law, the Only Way: https://t.co/pazgpy9bbY

1. The military is the only way. Why not just invoke the Insurrection Act and take down these traitors? – because the people won't accept it. They must first see it for themselves.

2. Before Nov 3rd, most people still believed the elections were mostly fair and honest. Minor attempts at fraud existed, sure, but nothing like widespread national vote rigging. That fairytale has since been thoroughly and completely shattered these last several weeks.

2a. We all know there is corruption in D.C., but we also had to see the corruption at the state and local levels too. Even Republicans were in on it.

3. Evidence was collected and lawsuits were filed, only for us to run into yet another level of corruption: the courts. Here and there a normal judge appears, but they are almost always overruled by corrupted higher courts.

4. Another level of corruption: the mainstream media (MSM). The full on suppression and refusal to cover any of these lawsuits fairly and accurately to keep the info from the people is criminal. Even Fox News has thrown in.

5. Joining their more traditional MSM brethren, are the Big Tech tyrants, who happily label anything speaking honestly and factually as 'disputed'. They're also quite happy in outright suspending or banning accounts that get a little too close to the truth.

6. In an effort to combat these corrupt and fraudulent acts, we reach out to our corrupted DOJ and FBI for assistance in restraining these bad actors, and are responded to with silence. It's as if these agencies are also in on the fraud and do not want to get involved.

7. We hold hearings with republican reps and senators from state legislatures presenting the evidence we've collected of widespread fraud. Afterward, they're fully engaged, but there's only so many of them and the remaining legislature doesn't want the fight.

8. Unfortunately, the state legislatures will most likely fail at their attempts to reclaim the electoral power. But this is known and expected. Why pursue it then, along with these hearings? Because WTP and these legislatures need to know the truth being kept from them.

9. The Trump legal team, along with Sidney Powell and the White Hats, all know that these legal issues will end up in front of SCOTUS. They are using this time now in the lower courts to build their cases and spread the information (as much of it as they can) far and wide.

10. The MAGA legal team needs to have the people and the state legislatures on board when the real hammer drops after SCOTUS rules in favor of Trump.

11. The [DS] and the Soros bunch, along with the MSM, will cry bloody murder when the SCOTUS ruling drops. They will not accept it. They will blame ACB and refuse to concede. The riots will start again. The fires, the looting, the violence. The WH will be surrounded.

12. The [DS] will have their ghoulish black bloc brigades thoroughly convinced the election was stolen by Trump and that they need to remove him by force. Tensions will rise until the hoards overrun the WH grounds and attempt to remove the POTUS, who will be absent.

13. It is around this time we will get the message via Twitter: "My fellow Americans, the Storm is upon us." and the Insurrection Act will be finally invoked. The military and federalized NG will restore order to the streets, and will conduct all investigations into the fraud.

14. What evidence do you think they'll use to conduct these investigations – possibly all the evidence being collected now and being displayed for all to see in these hearings? Would they add more of their own evidence? Treason will be declared and perp walks will begin.

15. So we're just waiting on the SCOTUS rulings and the invocation of the Insurrection Act. That's what all this is leading up to. POTUS and white hats had to show the people the truth and that all options to correct the fraud had been expended before...

15a. ...invoking the Act, however. So what does this mean for we Patriots right now? Do we sit back and do nothing? No. We stand and we fight.
