Twitter Thread by jenn schiffer

jenn schiffer
@jennschiffer

hey pals - logging in to remind you that you really should vote. and i GET IT, mailing things is hard/weird bc many of us don't ever have to do it. if you're in the nj/nyc area, u can buy stamps at duane reade/cvs/staples/many bodegas

i used to get kids to fill out voter registration forms at concerts back when i was in college - even back then the biggest roadblock was 1. remembering to mail it and 2. having a stamp and envelope and knowing where to put it. don't be embarrassed if you don't know - pls ask!

here's a nice list of states and the weird (sometimes lack) of info on how much postage is required (in nj, postage isn't required!) https://t.co/3XgSpHKuf0 this reminds me of when i had a former boyfriend go to the post office to get us a book of stamps so we can mail the rent check and he came back with a book of 1 cent stamps, bless that man for he is now a father of two and today i accidentally dressed as parappa the rapper