Twitter Thread by Jennifer Cohn ✍■ ■

Jennifer Cohn ✍■ ■
@jennycohn1

.@CharlieKirk11's "Turning Point Action was listed as a participant in [the] ... rally, which preceded the attack on Capitol Hill. Prior to the rally, in a tweet he later deleted, Kirk said the group wld be involved w/ sending over 80 buses..." 1/

2/ "CNBC captured a screenshot of tweet before it was deleted.
Kirk recently said on his podcast that those from Turning Point got back on their buses & left following the conclusion of the rally."

3/ Thread https://t.co/CR9SSGr8kU

> Here are some of the mainstream donor advised funds who contributed to Turning Point USA, a cosponsor of the protest that preceded the deadly attack on the Capitol.
>
> They helped anonymize contributions for donors.
>
> These numbers are just from each group's most recent tax filing.
>
> — Eli Clifton (@EliClifton) January 11, 2021

4/ ■ https://t.co/2cz9ntpcZ4

> when you brought 80 buses of people to an insurrection and want your audience of republican millionaires to forget it pic.twitter.com/phnvCVzJw9
>
> — John Whitehouse (@existentialfish) January 11, 2021

5/ https://t.co/TYeMXhLD9m

> How did 26-year-old Charlie Kirk go from living with his parents to a waterfront condo? Over a short period of time, his pay from the pro-Trump charity he co-founded rose to 300k. https://t.co/k9UO83awsi
>
> — ProPublica (@propublica) January 13, 2021