Twitter Thread by This Week

This Week
@ThisWeekABC

BREAKING: 54% say Pres. Trump should be charged criminally with inciting a riot for having encouraged his supporters to march on the Capitol, new @ABC News/WaPo poll finds.

BREAKING: Pres. Trump will leave office with a 38% job approval rating in new @ABC News/WaPo poll; 60% of the public disapproves, matching his peak disapproval in August 2018. https://t.co/jljkHh6pF0

Presidential Approval

	Final approval	Change
Trump	38%	-6 pts.
Obama	60	+5
GW Bush	33	+3
Clinton	65	+5
Bush	56	+7

SOURCE: ABC NEWS/WASHINGTON POST POLLS

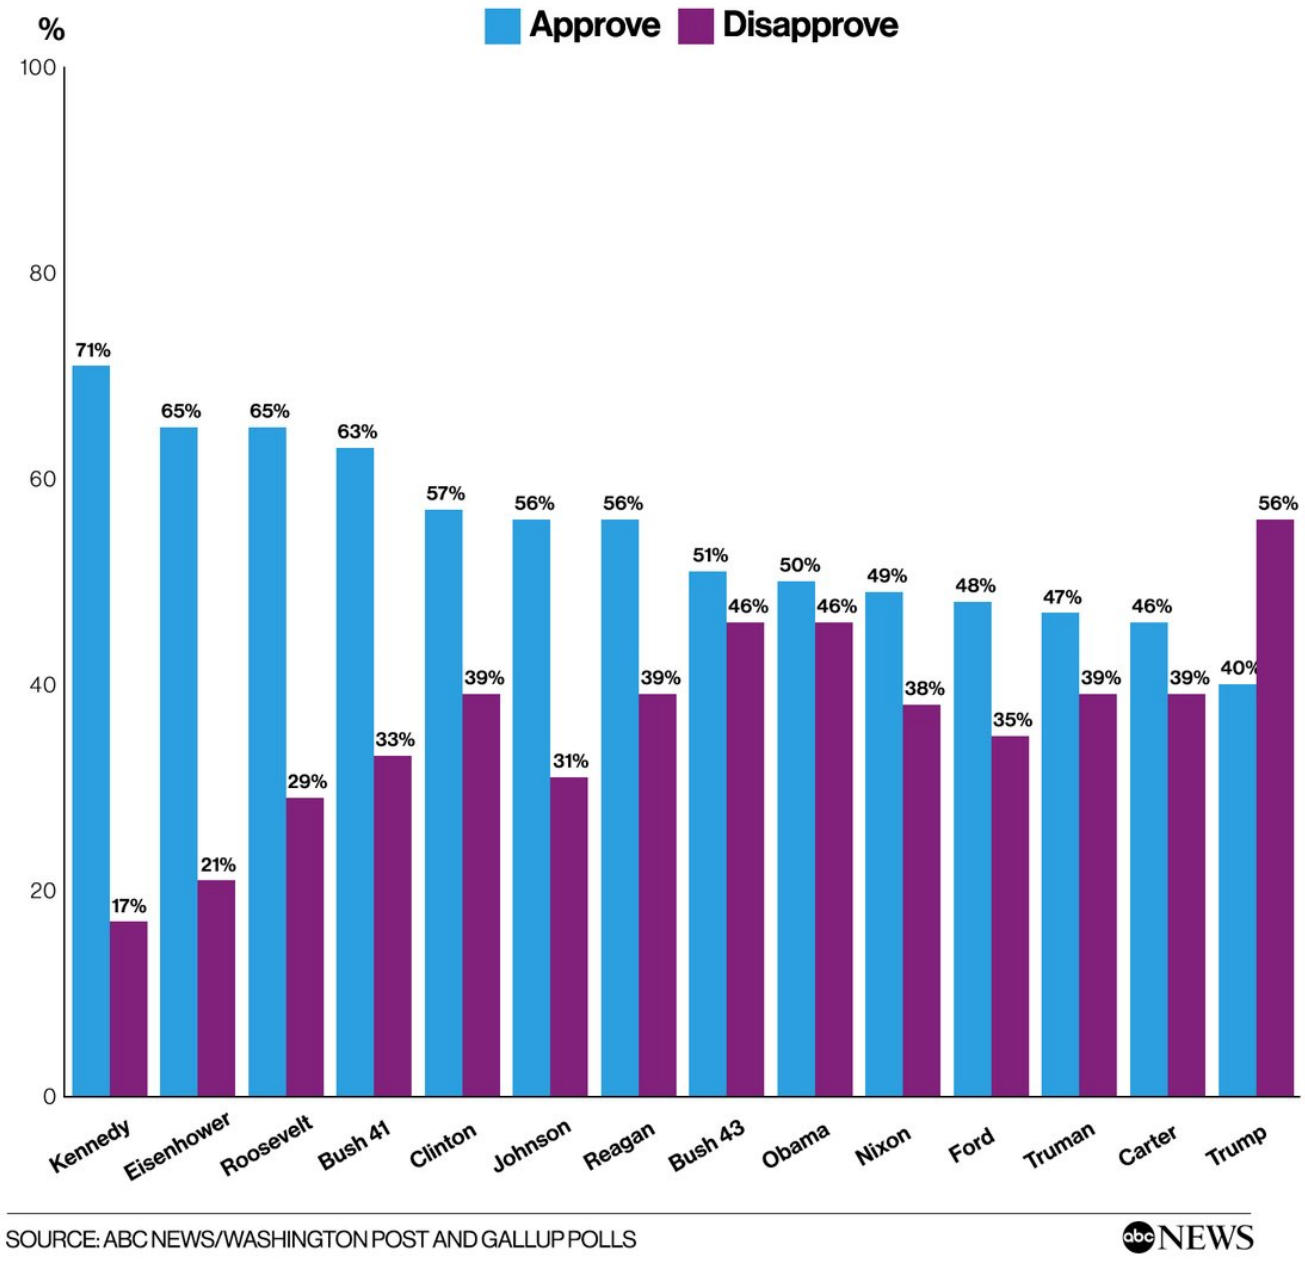

abc NEWS

JUST IN: 89% of Americans oppose the actions of those who stormed the Capitol, including 80% who are strongly opposed. Among Trump supporters, 76% are opposed, including 60% strongly opposed. https://t.co/jljkHh6pF0

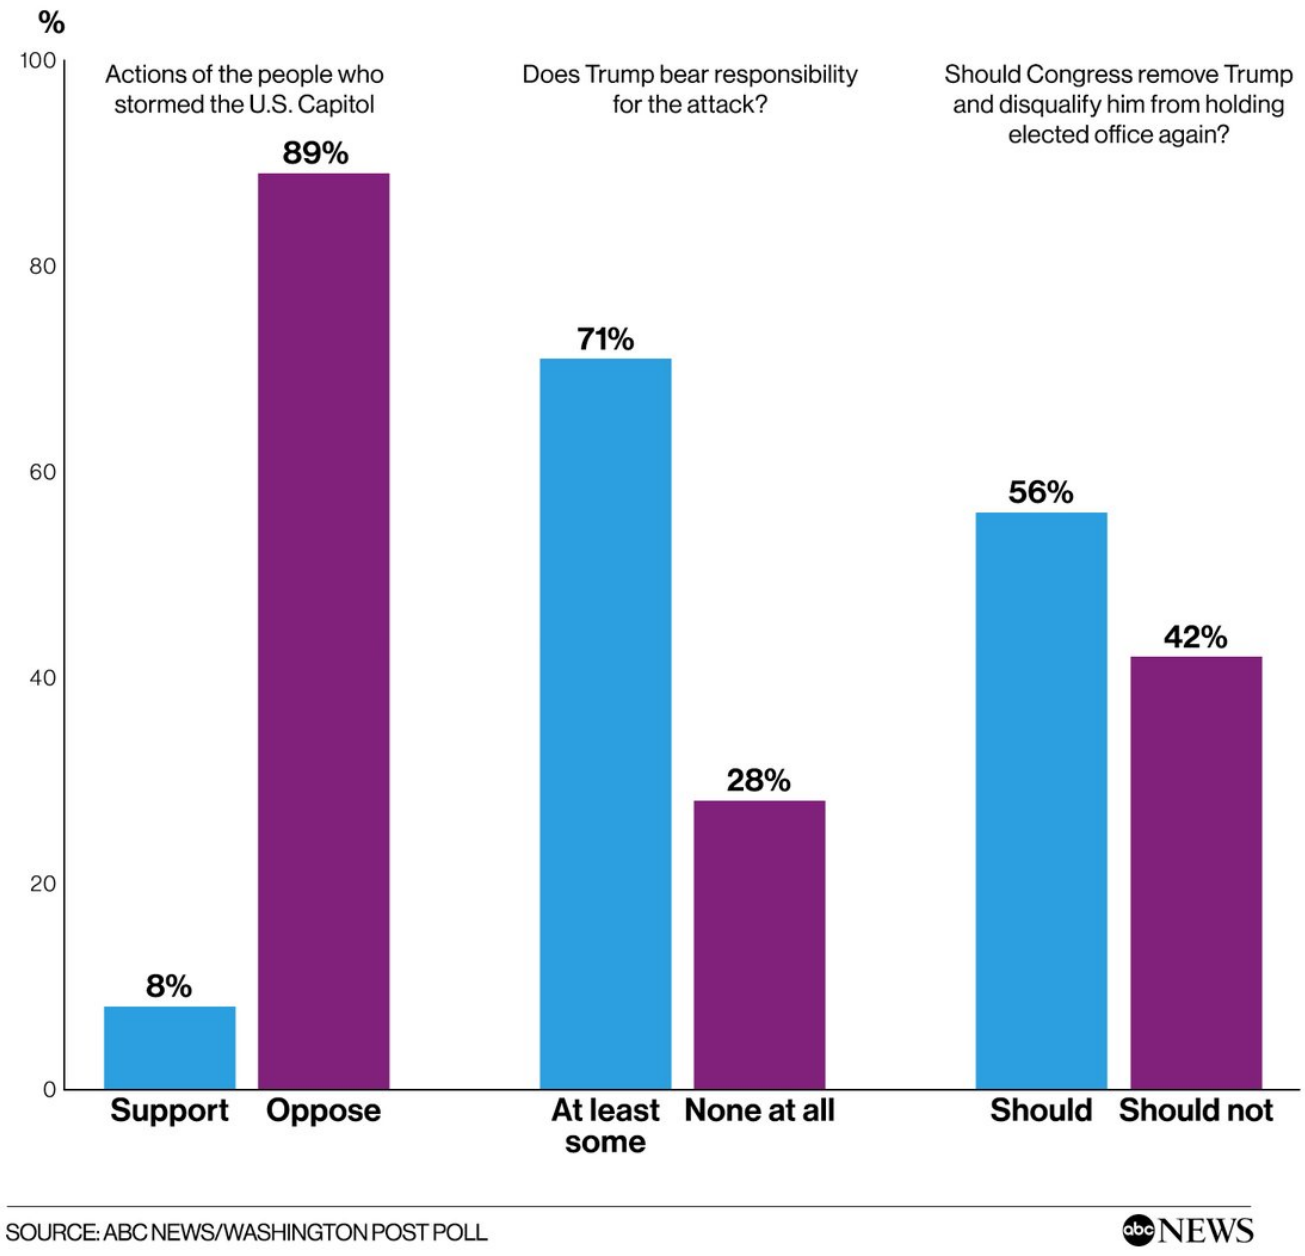

Trump and the Attack on the U.S. Capitol

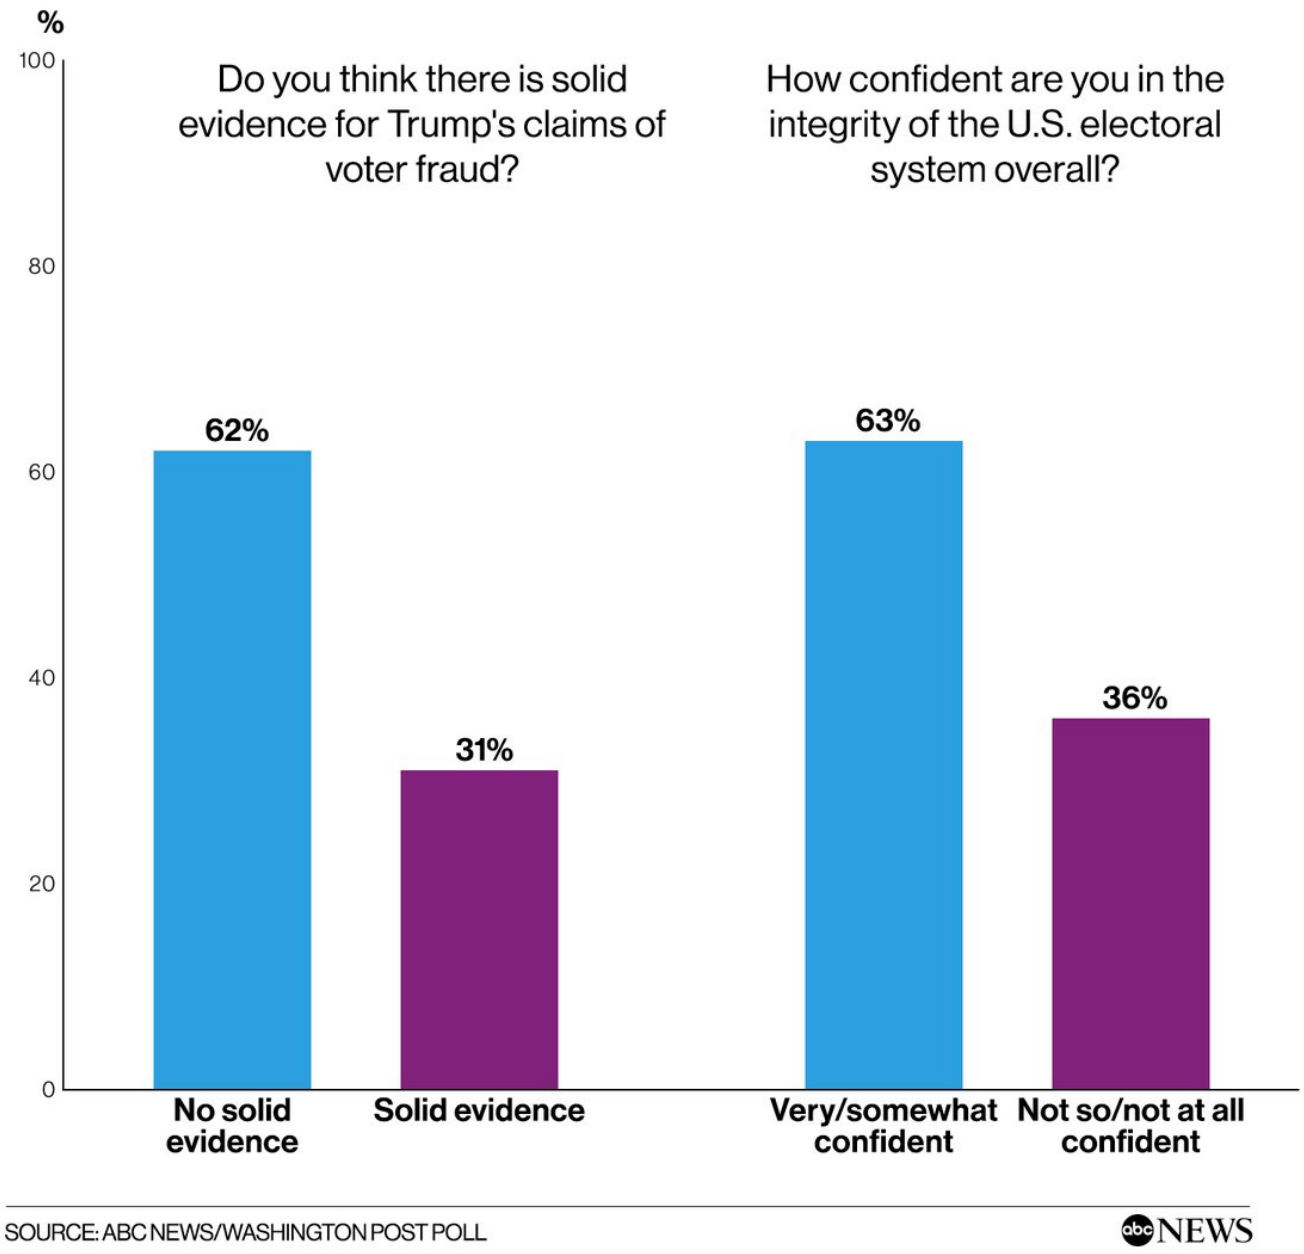

BREAKING: Pres. Trump's career average approval rating is the lowest for any president in modern polling dating back to 1939. He is the first president in that time never to achieve majority approval at any point. https://t.co/jljkHh6pF0

JUST IN: 56% in new @ABC News/WaPo poll favor removing Pres. Trump from office and barring him from holding elected office again—exceeding the 47% who supported his removal in his first impeachment last year. https://t.co/jljkHh6pF0

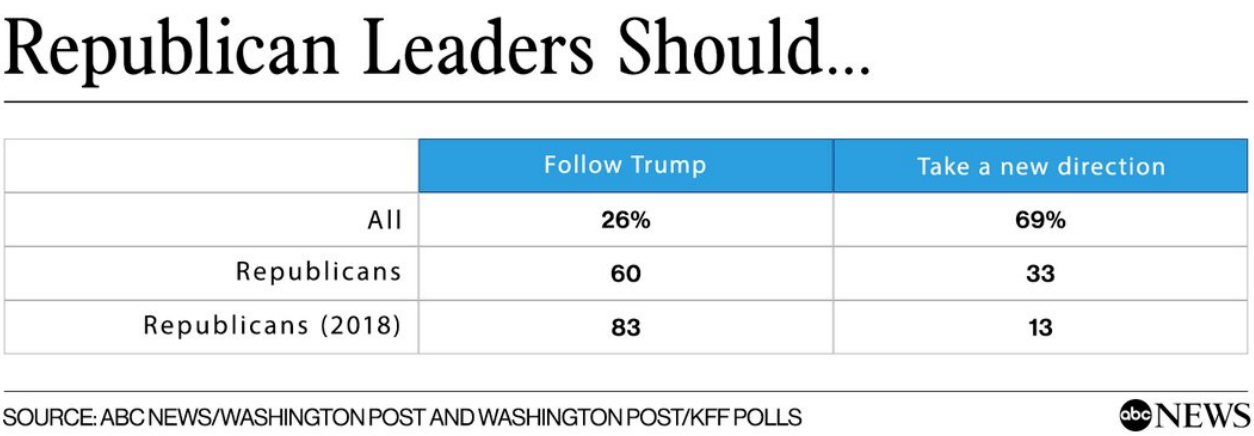

NEW: 62% of Americans say they see no evidence of Pres. Trump's election claims, and 63% express confidence in the electoral system overall. The numbers are much lower among Republicans. https://t.co/jljkHh6pF0

NEW: 51% say the events of the past week in Washington, D.C., left them less confident in the stability of democracy in the U.S., according to new @ABC News/WaPo poll. https://t.co/jljkHh6pF0

New @ABC News/WaPo poll finds nearly 7 in 10 think Republicans should lead the party in a different direction. https://t.co/jljkHh6pF0

MORE: 6 in 10 Republicans believe the party should follow Pres. Trump's leadership—lower than the 83% who thought so in 2018, but underscoring the schism within the party. https://t.co/jljkHh6pF0

NEW: 52% of Americans in new @ABC News/WaPo poll say Republican leaders who supported Pres. Trump's effort to overturn the election "went too far"—a position held by just 16% of Republicans. https://t.co/jljkHh6pF0