

Twitter Thread by TheValuesVoter

TheValuesVoter

@TheValuesVoter

I did some comparisons on different aspects of how America is doing right now compared to how it was doing at this time four years ago.

I put the links to the sources of information here so you can check for yourself.

1) Unemployment, the Deficit and the Debt

America – Now versus Four Years Ago By The Numbers

	Four Years Ago	Now
Outgoing President	 Barack Obama	 Donald Trump
Unemployment Rate Unemployment rate for December of the Election Year (https://data.bls.gov/timeseries/LNS14000000)	4.7%	6.7%
Federal Budget Deficit Deficit in Billions of Dollars (https://www.thebalance.com/us-deficit-by-year-3306306)	$665 Billion	$2.100 Trillion
National Debt Increase, Current Term Debt increase - Previous Inauguration Day to One Week Prior to Next Inauguration Day (https://treasurydirect.gov/govt/reports/pd/debttothepenny.htm)	21.35% Increase	38.78% Increase