Twitter Thread by Michelle Tandler

Michelle Tandler
@michelletandler

This is what downtown San Francisco looks like right now.

(■1/x)

https://t.co/XKAsS1MoSJ

https://t.co/aUNRl81svV

https://t.co/dgXp9OXiA5

https://t.co/1wPtT8V0td

https://t.co/IA6rxOefVL

https://t.co/1x9L10amAZ

I have no words right now to convey the shock and disappointment I feel towards our local government.

My hands are trembling I am so angry at our leaders.

This is their doing.

Boarded windows > broken windows.

This is what happens when the criminal justice system doesn't work.

San Francisco has become lawless and residents and businesses are going into self-protection mode.

The stats are fictitious. Nobody reports. People are hunkering down.

We are all over the news.

A shiny example of what a progressive-run city looks like.

I believe our government is more akin to a regime than a body of public servants.

San Franciscans -- this is our doing. It's up to us to reverse the trend.

If you are bothered by the direction of things, get involved.

Read San Fransicko, get on Twitter, engage with your neighbors, talk to local business owners.

This is going to take years to turn around...

First up, recalls.

(Fin)

(Follow up)

Someone sent me an album of more photos.

I made a slideshow on YouTube and added some thoughts.

Still grappling with why I think this situation is so concerning.

https://t.co/tWUnmxtym8

> Someone sent me an album filled with photos of boarded up San Francisco.
>
> I recorded some thoughts while looking through them.
>
> Would love to know how everybody is thinking about this. https://t.co/DRmNGnL2fz
>
> — Michelle Tandler (@michelletandler) November 30, 2021