Twitter Thread by Anu Satheesh

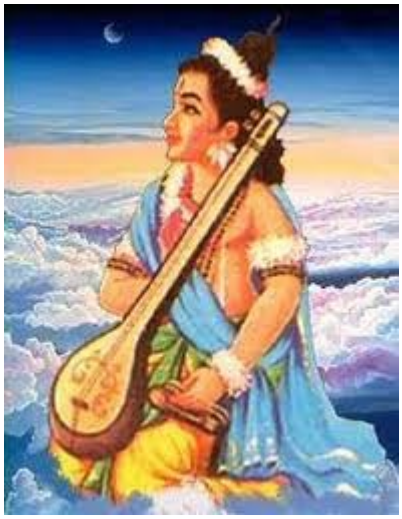

Anu Satheesh
@AnuSatheesh5

Beautiful story of Shri Krishna, Mata Rukmini & Satyabhama which teaches the importance of Bhakthi.
Devotion is important than anything.
#bhakthi
■
Satyabhama, royal princess was very proud of herself. Rukmini was very humble, her devotion was pure to Shri Krishna.

One day, Rishi Narada(Kalahapriya) arrived in Dwaraka and met Sathyabhama. In between the conversation he hinted that Krishna exhibits affection more to Rukmini than her. Worried Sathyabhama asked what can should be done to gain Krishna's undivided attention.
@SriramKannan77

Narada asked Satyabhama to make a vow, that she will hand over Krishna to him as a slave, if she cannot trade wealth equivalent to Krishna's weight. Narada thus convinces Sathyabhama that Krishna will admire her for sacrificing all her wealth for him.

Sathyabhama was sure that she have enough wealth to balance Krishna.

She went to Krishna and told about her vow to Narada. Krishna patiently listened to her and accepted the challenge. Satyabhama arranged to bring large scales to weigh and brought all her precious jewels.

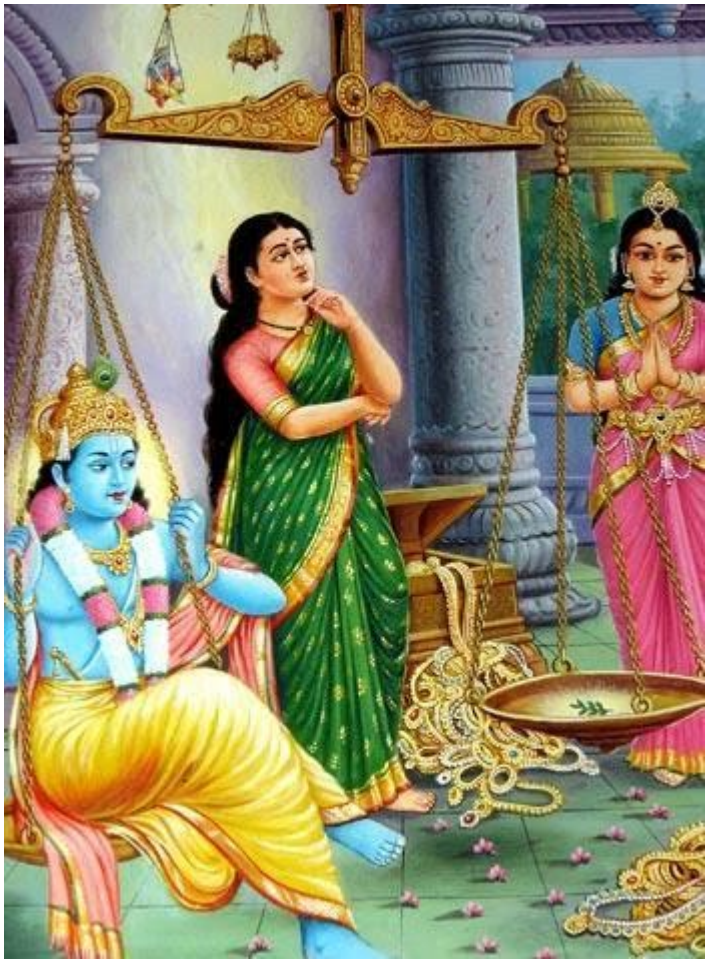

Krishna patiently sat on one plate of the Scales (tula). Sathyabhama started piling up the gold, jewels on the other plate. She kept adding more and more wealth, but the pan with Krishna did not even budge. Even after keeping all her jewels the scale did not move a little

A worried Sathyabhama looked at Krishna. Shri Krishna told her to consult Rukmini.

Sathyabhama went to Rukmini and informed her everything. Rukmini assured to help Sathyabhama and plucked a single leaf of Tulasi (Basil) while walking to the hall.

She walked towards the balance and praying to Krishna, placed the single Tulasi leaf on piled up wealth. The pan containing Krishna flew up.

Satyabhama looked to Krishna for explanation. Krishna asked her to remove the wealth from balance. She removed all riches until nothing but tulasi leaf was left. Still it weighed more than Krishna. Krishna came to her, and told that eventhough Bhama gave all her wealth there was no devotion in offering. Offering made without devotion is of no use. Rukmini offered just a single tulasi leaf. But her intentions were noble, and offered with utmost devotion. And that single leaf was sufficient to please Krishna.

With tears in eyes Sathyabhama thanked Narada to teach her Power of devotion.

