Attacks on Andhra Pradesh Temples - Several Temples of Andhra Pradesh are being vandalized by "some unknow group(s)" for over an year. The governments will not care because population does not care too.

Who are doing these attacks. Obviously some groups want some anarchy and put the government of the day on the mat. #PorambokuAndhraHindus are just watching this as drama and not knowing that this kind of passivity will just reach their drawing and bedrooms.

There was exact same kind of attacks on Mosques and churches during NDA government in year 2000. Deendar Anjuman was the group behind. Read these links from the past

That Deendhar Anjuman group was passively (via. plausible deniability) supported by then opposition cong, there should be no surprise if these "mystery groups" who r vandalizing temples are supported by TDP (current opposition) because #PorambokuAndhraHindus are in sleep (10/n)

While the government of AP led by @ysjagan is an utter failure and hasn't done any significant investigation (boasting of best of CID divisions and it is now an year and attacks haven't stopped) the #PorambokuAndhraHindus forgot even how to revolt or counter attack (11/n)

Instead of some ground action, the #PorambokuAndhraHindus suddenly think BJP has to do something or center has not done required stuff. Jokers. (12/n)

While the temples are being attacked regularly over an year, it's opposition leader @ncbn of @JaiTDP is more worried about Amaravati realestate. He can't sit one dharna for any temple attack.TDP = Two District party?. Our #PorambokuAndhraHindus don't question this as well (n/n)
