The greatest modern Urdu poet and scholar Allama Iqbal called Sri Ram 'Imam-e-Hind’. Imam-e-Hind means religious head of India. #RamMandirNidhiSamarpan Shri Ram JanamBhumi

Kabir who founded the Nirguna School of Bhakti conceived Rama as a formless God whereas Tulsidas and his followers worshipped Rama as Saguna God taking into account His divine qualities and achievements. #RamMandirNidhiSamarpan Donate 4 Ram

To Ramananda it was irrelevant whether the devotee was a Nirguna or Saguna Bhakta so long as he followed Ramananda's preaching and had religious fervour.

Tulsidas was the most important poet of the Rama Bhakti school. The wave of the Bhakti movement spear-headed in the North by Ramananda may have influenced Tulsidas. #RamMandirNidhiSamarpan Donate 4 Ram

The name “Ram” was used by Guru Kabir and other classic or early Sants such as Namdev. “Satya-Ram” is the sacred name used by the followers of Sant Dadu Dayal of Rajasthan. #RamMandirNidhiSamarpan Donate 4 Ram

The root of the word Ram is ram- which means "stop, stand still, rest, rejoice, be pleased". #RamMandirNidhiSamarpan Donate 4 Ram

Additional names of Ram include Ramvijaya (Javanese), Phreah Ream (Khmer), Phra Ram (Lao and Thai), Megat Seri Ram (Malay), Raja Bantugan (Maranao), Ramudu (Telugu), Ramr (Tamil) #RamMandirNidhiSamarpan Donate 4 Ram

“The building of Ram mandir will end a major issue of friction between Hindus and Muslims. And if it is done amicably, it will automatically silence those who points finger at the Muslim community.” #RamMandirNidhiSamarpan Donate 4 Ram

Construction of a grand temple at Ayodhya, considered the birthplace of Sri Ram, will eliminate a big reason for disagreements between Hindus and Muslims. #RamMandirNidhiSamarpan
