Prof, Generally this helps the company to focus on their operational parameters and improve their efficiency / effectiveness in their industry. The key point is that one aims to outperform the industry players. Especially if you are a functional / sr mgmt personnel in their daily quarterly ++

@Sanjay__Bakshi annual perf. Rarely an operational mgr / sr mgr runs their show with a view to maximize share price in the short / medium terms. Next to impossible. The timelines of investors / spltr / sr mgmt / rarely coincide to enable them to pursue same objectives.
