■■ Situation Update, Dec. 7th – DNI John Ratcliffe, the bogus science of PCR testing and China's GMO super soldiers

■ I cover the bogus science behind PCR testing, explaining from a lab science point of view why no PCR instrument can "quantify" anything, [M. Adams]

1. whether it's a coronavirus viral load or the percentage of a food that's GMO. In fact, literally all the tests currently conducted with PCR equipment are scientifically invalid when it comes to diagnosing illness or determining infectiousness. The sample acquisition used for

2. PCR tests — nasal swabs — aren't even standardized! (100% bogus junk science).
After covering PCR tests, today's update then goes into detail about Director of National Intelligence (DNI) John Ratcliffe, pointing out that he will be issuing a report on foreign interference

3. in U.S. elections on or before Dec. 18th. If this report confirms the existence of foreign interference that was capable of altering the outcome of the election, it gives President Trump full justification to declare the election null and void and dispatch military troops

4. to seize all ballots and hold a new count under military authority.

Ratcliffe told Fox News that China intends “to dominate economically,

16. militarily and technologically, and is the only country capable of challenging American supremacy across the board.”

“All of the threat streams that we have, from all aspects, militarily, economically, supply chain issues, foreign investment, technologically, cyber issues,

17. cyber warfare, 5G, telecommunications — China is in all of those and they are the only country to be in that space and the only country that threatens America supremacy,” Ratcliffe told Fox News.
