Most of market does not beat the market by a lot. Which is alright.
In any activity the distribution of outcomes follows bell curve (Gaussian).

Those that are willing to put in effort reap the benefits. ■

Otherwise we always have option to go for hard working PM's/etf/mf

Things to need to do before you buy a stock. I wonder though how many investors have the ability for item numbers 5, 6 & 7. I don't pic.twitter.com/E5AMVxbpNb

For lot of consumer facing cos scuttlebutt is actually not that hard. We find reviews online (eg: app reviews on playstore, or reviews of products on social media)

B2B is hard to scuttlebutt, need to reach out to people in co and hope that are willing to talk. Connections help
