Have patience; let the market reveal it's hand.

You ask me or any other persons, they'll tell you their subjective view however unbiased they attempt to be.

It is their view and not necessarily the market's.

My subjective view is labelled in the charts.

Currently reading the book you put on your website. Also, from this if we consider 18600 as 5 th wave end of Nifty ideally it's doing the 1st 12345 of downtrend, of which do e already 1234, currently going towards 5 which I believe should go below 100% of 4th retracement wave
