Twitter is like a free workshop.

But 98.8% of the people miss out on the best tweets.

Here are our best threads from February & what they can help you with:

Collaborated with @niki_poojary

1) How to use Tradingview paid features in the free plan?

This will save you a lot of money each year. Also a huge help with multi-timeframe analysis.

2) After constantly working with @niki_poojary I finally learned how to make my own trading plan.

I listed down her simple 8 step process to create a plan:

5) We'd all love to lower our trading costs significantly. That's where "synthetics" help us.

These are must-know concepts to help you build a strong foundation. Once you master them, you'll always pick the right strategy from a cost & and returns point.

6) We can do some cool things with Zerodha's charting platform for free.

@niki_poojary has listed out 7 ways we can use the charting software to save money and enhance our experience on Zeordha.

https://t.co/HcNxnBA0vg

Over 5 million people trade with @zerodhaonline

But ~90% don't know how to use their charting software optimally
