I try to look for exhaustion of supply, drying down of volumes, & narrowing of daily/weekly ranges. Enter after an upmove, on the lowest volume & the smallest daily range, as the stock forms a low volume doji/inside bar while in pullback/retest at/in/near the zone of 10MA & 20MA.

I m watching your posts... amazing sir.... thanks for sharing.... can you share what is your trade set up
