#Journey : 3 Years ago I quit my well-paying job at MNC and jumped into Full-Time Trading. I going to put out everything that may help you to shorten your learning curve.

Please share your love by liking and retweeting if you find it useful to you and your followers.

I have been called Influencer. I m happy if I have been influencing in the right direction.

I have been called the trainer and am happy with that as well as not many get a chance to teach their experience.

I am putting down all the efforts I have put in these 3 years
