Twitter Thread by Kurt "Masks Save Lives" Eichenwald

Kurt "Masks Save Lives" Eichenwald
@kurteichenwald

When liars like @HawleyMO scream "Cancel Culture!" and "WOKE!" because they are discovering liars and those who attack democracy are in a Consequences Culture, remind them of all the people they tried to cancel for opinions or mistakes, not lying or attacking democracy:.../1

...
1. Dixie Chicks
2. @kathygriffin
3. @Toure
4. Chis Matthews
5. Graydon Carter
6. Bill Maher
7. New York Magazine
8. New York Times
9. Washington Post
10. CNN
11. MSNBC
12. CNBC
13. Dallas Morning News
14. Arizona Republic
15. Univision
16. Apple
17. WSJ editorial board.../2

...
18. Jonah Goldberg
19. NFL players who kneel
20. Harley Davidson
21. Paul Krugman
22. Chuck Todd
23. Facebook
24. Twitter
25. Nordstrom
26. Bed Bath and Beyond
27. TJ Maxx

28. Estee Lauder
29. AT&T
30. Bloomingdale's
31. Rep Tim Rice
32. Cindy McCain
33. Jeff Flake.../3

...
34. Doug Ducey
35. Simon & Schuster
36. French Fries (yes. French fries.)

...the majority of these "cancels" arent because the targets engaged in lying or attacks on Democracy. Many are because they had a political opinion that didn't express fealty to GOP's God King.../4

...or because they expressed an opinion that proved right (France didn't want to be part of the Iraq War, Dixie Chicks criticized Bush for engaging in Iraq War) - a war that the GOP NOW agrees with France and the Dixie Chicks about (And do their best to blame dems for it).../5

...so, you want cancel culture? One side, it's "cancel" because they don't worship the right politician or commit to an insane GOP policy. On the other, it's "cancel" because there are consequences for inciting insurrection, encouraging or being white supremacists/nazis,..../6

...engaging in racism, ripping infants from their breast feeding mothers, putting 1 year olds on trial (yes, they really did this) taking toddlers and young children away from their parents and locking them up. And on and on..../7

...so, yah, GOP, boo hoo. You can't lie or hurt people without consequences. And, for you, people can't have a different opinion without being "canceled."

The biggest perpetrators are always the loudest whiners.

end

WHOOPS! How could I leave out Liz Cheney. Yah, they attack her for not cheering violent, murderous insurrection.