1. It is not illegal in the U.K. to wear clothes described as for the opposite sex.

2.The GRA, the sex-role stereotype recognition Act, does not serve to right a legislative injustice but rather to entrench a world-view.

3. The sex-role stereotype recognition Act, this creed is one where women's oppression is natural and desired, same-sex attraction is bigotry which can be unlearnt and individual men get to define reality based on their wishes.

4. The notion of sex-role discomfort disorder (gender dysphoria) presupposes that sex-role stereotypes are innate to all of us and is based on woo woo. Do you agree with Benjamin:

> disrupted.[3] Do you agree with Harry Benjamin that
> > 'The normal male... is sexually attracted to women, and would be horrified to wear female clothes or "change his sex." He is often husband and father, works in a job or profession in accord with his sex and gender that is never questioned legally or socially. The genetically normal female presents the opposite picture. She feels, looks, acts, and functions as a woman, wants to be nothing else, usually marries and has children. She dresses and makes up to be attractive to men and her sex and gender are never doubted either by society or by the law.'[4]

5. We need to stop approving their ideology and the idea that if you are uncomfortable with discrimination then you have a mental illness.

6. Transgenderism, for teenage girls, is the wrong answer to a woman-and-girl-hating culture. It is the wrong response to a society where the female is Objectified, seen as an instrument for male pleasure and judged on her appearance as if she had no inner world

7. The GRA Legitimises Domestic Abuse of Women & Children. The home is not safer when autogynephilia is present. The sex-role stereotype recognition Act is complicit with AGP (autogynephile) domestic abuse of their partners, spouses and children.

8. Women should not be considering compromising on the fact of the full humanity of women, on female rights as unassailable.

9. Legislation, such as the sex-role stereotype recognition Act (GRA), that is in opposition to the Human Rights Act 1998, the Equality Act 2010, UN CEDAW 1979, UN Convention on the Rights of the Child 1990 is neither good nor well-intentioned legislation.

10. Bad law does get repealed: it took 15 years, from 1988 to 2003, to repeal Section 28 of the Local Government Act 1986. Section 13 of The Criminal Law Act 1967 declared the offence of being a common scold... obsolete.
