Here's the gig from what I can make out.. #1, The majority of the masses failed the initiation test miserably... I mean, if there could have been a little bit of a whimper, or somebody yelling at the top of their lungs... But nothing... The test scores are in and the ...cont

Governments have won rounds 1-6. Because of that, a scared and frightened public, is now even more scared, frightened and confused. The way they see it, best to go with the flow for now until "THIS STUPID COVID BULLSH#! PASSES. Not so fast. That's because nothings passing..,cont

They moved into position quickly as soon as the Bullsh#! was in peoples head about a deadly virus.. Complete makeovers featuring facilities and safety equipment for Covid19.. I kept telling you to pay attention, now they've infiltrated this stuff into everything...cont

At this point, they have successfully removed anything and everything that made life worth livin.. THINK ABOUT THAT !!. I find myself getting highly frustrated when talking to people, and they have no idea whats going on.. Vaccine?? what vaccine.. If they hadn't seen me ...cont

By chance, and knowing me, if I find someone who'll listen I'll talk their ears off. Not trying to be rude, it's just to me, the information is something they need to know. Problems arise when it's discovered they have zero knowledge about any of it. Information is being withheld

When you have a population of people that since birth have "done it right", you'll find them with a career, paying a mortgage, expecting their third child and living inside of MSM's tunnel... Their whole life revolves around what's going on with MSM.. Thru the Boob Tube...cont

Going to a Sports event, going to the Gym, going to a Movie, going to work, all managed by MSM..America is wealthier than anyone's wildest imagination. Money is literally given away.. Mainly because the world (most of it) has an economy that's fiat based.. Money used to..cont

To be backed by Gold or Silver.. No longer.. Most economies are debt based.. When debt is created that creates currency.. When the Banker gives you a loan, the promissory note assuring you of your debt, becomes a monkey on your back while at the same time giving the banker money

Because money is now worthless, Congress writes checks for more cash whenever the need arises.. You wouldn't believe how many people are aware of this and continue to play the game.. WHY NOT!! They're getting rich !! Its all these Yahoos who are complying with whatever ,,cont

Restrictions are put on you.. After all, have you seen any of the officials who are destroying your life and your country out in public, breaking curfew, not social distancing and not wearing a mask ?? ALL THE TIME !! The rules don't apply to them!!! cont

These people are profiting heavily off your misery.. They are dragging alot of people down... START DOING YOUR HOMEWORK FOLKS !! Stop taking someone else's word for anything.. You need to be the most knowledgeable one in your household.. STOP LISTENING TO EVERYONE EXCEPT YOU !!

As far as Covid19, do not plan on it going away AT ALL!! You can expect to be hassled about a mask for the rest of your life.. Privileges you had before have now been shut down indefinitely... If you haven't thought about starting a business from home, better get started..cont

This exercise will require your undivided attention.. If you are not paying attention, you'll eventually die.. The depopulation they've been talking about is going to be accomplished by the people themselves.. Slow but sure, the measures will be moved into place...cont

By measures I'm referring to the multiple things they're doing lately in the name of stopping Covid19.. A completely fabricated lie about something no worse than the common flu.. But the majority of the people have excepted their fate.. And there's no changing their minds

While all those idiots are consenting to their deaths, the few of us that woke up, will be dragged down with em.... Not unless you all can figure out how and where you can start a completely different society...
