According to Wind Information, ChinaAMC is ranked the second in China in terms of mutual funds AUM(excluding money market funds and short-term wealth-management products) by the end of 2019, behind E Fund Management Co., Ltd[3]

Power Corporation acquired a stake in China Asset Management in 2011, which is followed by another stake purchase by Mackenzie Investments in 2017.[4] Mackenzie is owned by Toronto-listed asset and wealth manager IGM Financial, which is owned by Power Corporation. Together they own 27.8% stake in ChinaAMC.[5] CITIC Securities is the largest shareholder with 62.2% stake.

In 2017, ChinaAMC became the first full-service Chinese asset manager to sign up for the United Nations-supported Principles for Responsible Investment (PRI).[6]
