In the Equal Opportunities Monitoring section of your job application, you list sex as one of the protected characteristics under the Equality Act 2010.

However...

Equal Opportunities Monitoring

The Scottish Prison Service is fully committed to equality, diversity, inclusion and Human Rights. To fulfil this commitment it is necessary to monitor the applications that we receive to ensure that all applicants are treated fairly regardless of age, disability, gender re-assignment, marital/civil partnership status, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation. We would like you therefore to complete this monitoring form. It is important to state that your responses to the following questions will not be accessed by those assessing your application.

Ethnic Group

How would you describe your ethnicity? *

Select

Gender

How would you describe your gender? *

Select

Male

Female

Prefer not to disclose

Is your gender identity the same as the gender you were originally assigned at birth? *

However, you then ask "How would you describe your gender?" with options:

Male

Female.

'Gender' is not a protected characteristic under the Equality Act 2010 and is not defined in the Act.

PART 2

EQUALITY: KEY CONCEPTS

CHAPTER 1

PROTECTED CHARACTERISTICS

4 The protected characteristics

The following characteristics are protected characteristics—

- age;
- disability;
- gender reassignment;
- marriage and civil partnership;
- pregnancy and maternity;
- race;
- religion or belief;
- sex;
- sexual orientation.

Sex is the protected characteristic and the only two possible options for sex are 'Female' and 'Male' as defined in the Act and consistent with biology.

'Gender' is not a synonym for sex.

11 Sex

In relation to the protected characteristic of sex—

- (a) a reference to a person who has a particular protected characteristic is a reference to a man or to a woman;
- (b) a reference to persons who share a protected characteristic is a reference to persons of the same sex.

You then ask "Is your gender identity the same as the gender you were originally assigned at birth?"

'Gender identity' and 'gender' are not protected characteristics under the Equality Act 2010 and are not defined in the Act.

CHAPTER 1

PROTECTED CHARACTERISTICS

4 The protected characteristics

The following characteristics are protected characteristics—

age;
disability;
gender reassignment;
marriage and civil partnership;
pregnancy and maternity;
race;
religion or belief;
sex;
sexual orientation.

'Gender' relies on demeaning, regressive stereotypical notions of societal roles for the two sexes.

'Gender' at birth is therefore a meaningless concept and 'gender' is not 'assigned' at birth: sex is observed and recorded and is immutable.

7/14

Asking about a personal characteristic such as 'gender' that is not a protected characteristic under the Act, may be in breach of the GDPR by processing personal - and potentially Special Category - data without a lawful basis.

8/14

If you choose not to gather data on specific protected characteristics (such as sex), you cannot have the information required to ascertain whether or not you could be discriminating on protected characteristics in recruitment. This could be vital in an employment tribunal.

9/14

If you choose to discriminate on characteristics (such as 'gender' or 'gender identity') that are not protected characteristics under the Act, you may inadvertently indirectly discriminate on protected grounds.

10/14

Given these errors and your use of incorrect terms, it's not clear how you can meet your Public Sector Equality Duty or how you have met it in the past given your data could have been corrupted by those who didn't provide their sex.

11/14

Nor is it clear how you can have had due regard to the other duties given the data you have collected.

12/14

Language and meaning of words are important and proper use & understanding of terms is vital so that the public is aware of what rights they have and what your duties are. Any confusion or inconsistency over meaning may prevent people from accessing their rights in law.

13/14

Will you undertake to correct these errors and to review all your other policies, documents, reports, etc to ensure compliance?

Please respond.
