18 First Date Rules that'll improve your results with women

1. Never compliment her appearance even if she asks

2. Avoid saying anything outside a brief interesting story about yourself and simple questions for her

3. Let her do most of the talking my brother

4. Never lie. You don't have to answer every question directly.

5. Never discuss any of your past relationships or sexual experiences. Give her general, brief replies if she asks, then change the topic back to her
