Twitter Thread by The Female Lead

The Female Lead
@the_female_lead

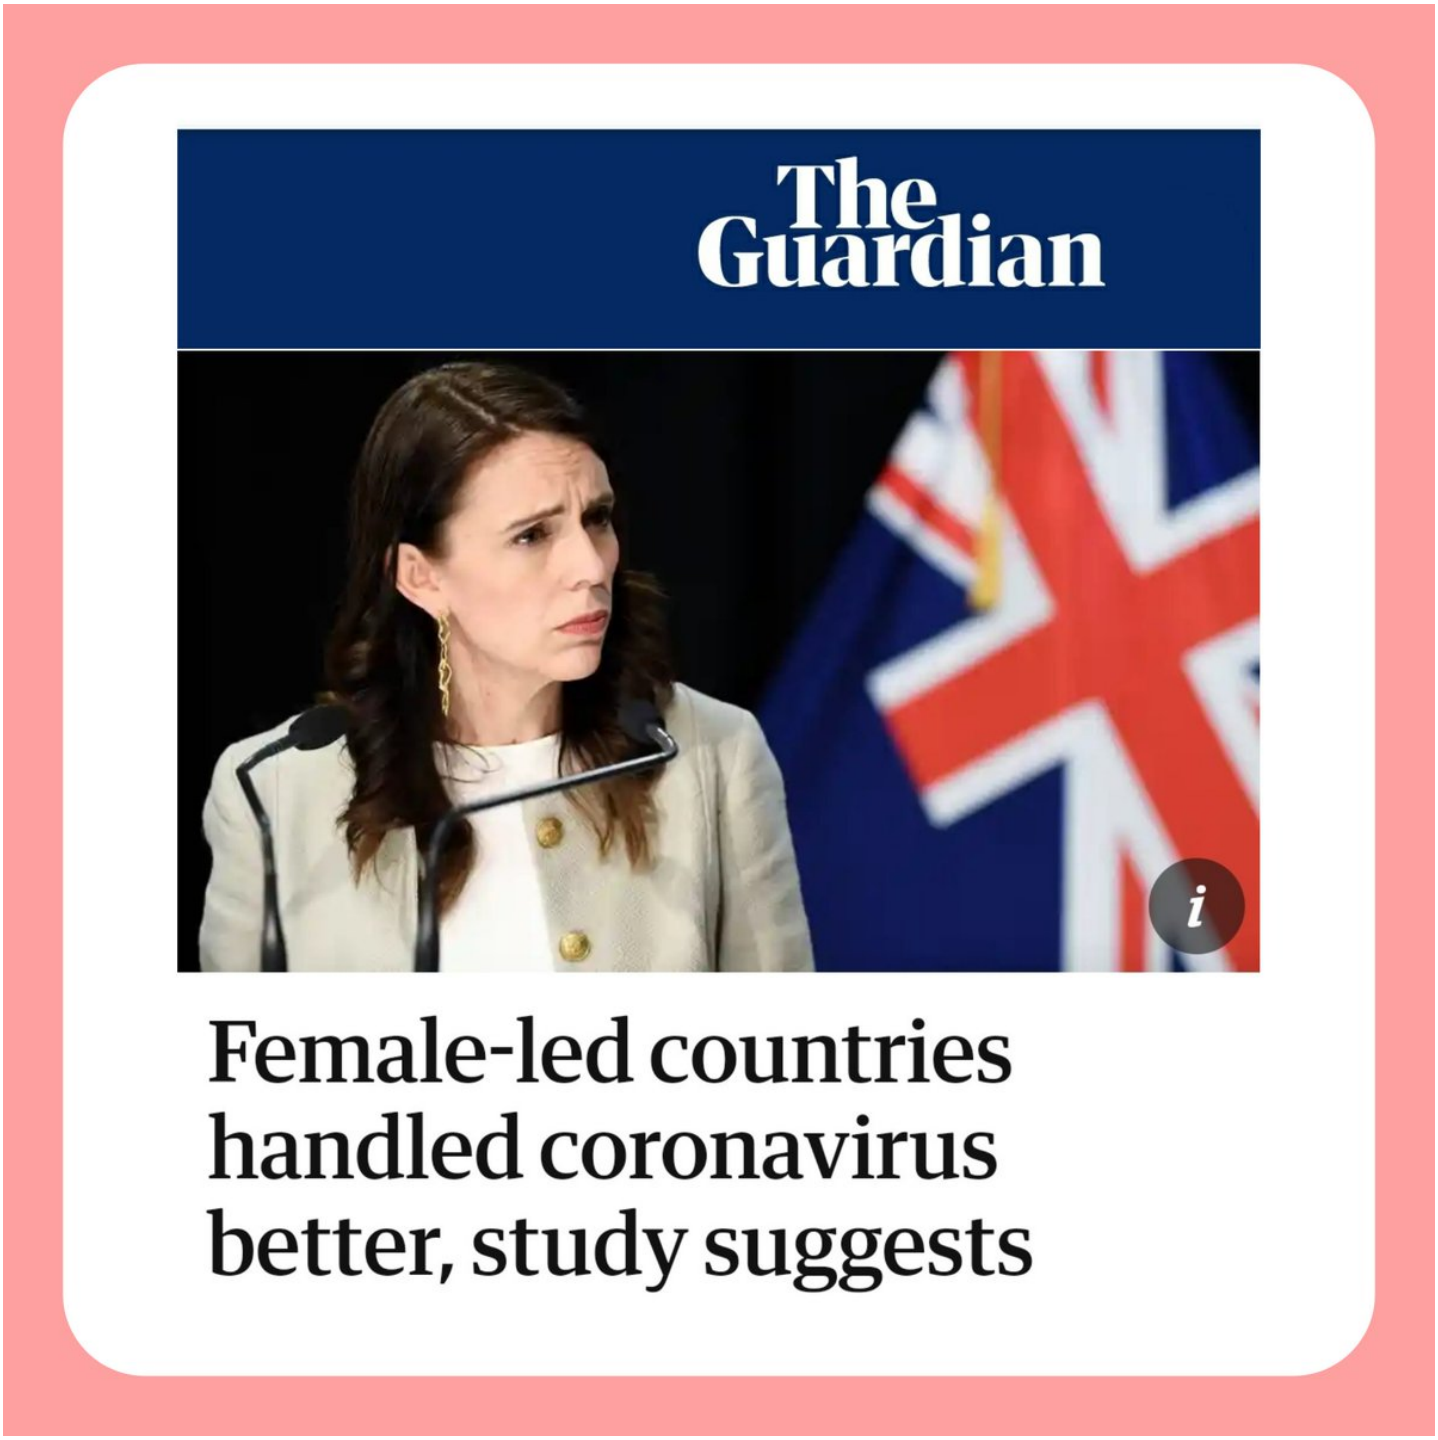

11 moments women changed the world in 2020 ■What would you add?■

1. Kamala Harris makes history as first woman of color elected US vice-president

2. Female-Led countries handled coronavirus better, study suggests

3. Record number of women took over Fortune 500 companies in 2020

4. Malala Yousafzai Graduates from Oxford University

The New York Times

Malala Yousafzai Graduates From Oxford University

5. Zendaya makes Emmys history as youngest lead actress drama winner

Los Angeles Times

Zendaya makes Emmys history as youngest lead actress drama winner

Zendaya makes Emmys history as youngest lead actress drama winner

6. Jacinda Ardern appoints Maori MP Nanaia Mahuta as foreign minister

MENU

THE TIMES
THURSDAY DECEMBER 31 2020

Subscribe

Nanaia Mahuta is the first female MP in New Zealand to have a traditional Maori tattoo on the chin

HAGEN HOPKINS/GETTY IMAGES

Jacinda Ardern appoints Maori MP Nanaia Mahuta as foreign minister

7. Finland's women-led government has equalized family leave: 7 months for each parent

8. Scotland becomes first nation to provide free period products for all

9. A record number of women will serve in the 117th Congress, including at least 51 women of color

yahoo!news

THE CONVERSATION

A record number of women will serve in the 117th Congress, including at least 51 women of color

10. Rihanna donates $2.1 million to domestic violence survivors during coronavirus lockdown

STYLIST

Rihanna donates $2.1 million to domestic violence survivors during coronavirus lockdown

11. World's first patient to get Covid vaccine has second Pfizer jab

METRO

World's first patient to get Covid vaccine has second Pfizer jab

Margaret Keenan getting her first dose of the vaccine (Picture: PA)