Twitter Thread by @earthworker

@earthworker
@earthworkrr

It was some days to Christmas and as a TEAM, they had just finished an intervention for a brother. He was still mulling over certain revelations from the prayers when his wife got a call.

It was from a colleague who was in distress and was crying over the phone in confusion.

"They just chased me out of the house I was staying...again".

The young lady had a history of rejection wherever she went to and even when she got a job, she was so surprised because she was rejected everywhere.

It was in her place of employment she met his wife.

His wife quickly gave him a breakdown and he told her "Let her come to the house in the morning".

By 7:30AM, she was in the house.

Immediately he saw her, he asked her "How old are you?"

"26" she responded.

She actually looked 40. Her responses didn't alarm him.

He understood certain spiritual realities and hers was one of such. It was evident, there was another occupant in her.

She went on and on about her circumstance which led to him asking her a question:

"Are you Born Again?"

"I attend church and I have Pastors I go to..."

"...who pray with me and give me prayer points". She said.

"So you have not given your life to Christ" he asked trying to ensure she understood the question

"No" she responded quietly.

"Stand on your feet, and join hands with my wife and repeat after me" I said.

He led her through the prayer of salvation and then led her through a short prayer on receiving the Holy Spirit baptism. Immediately she finished, he said boldly - "Receive the Holy Ghost".

What came out of her was a blood curling scream and a fierce writhing of her body.

In a few seconds, a strange voice started speaking through her.

He wasted no time and told the demon off.

"This child is now of the body of Christ and she has been redeemed from any curse in operation - Get Out!!!".

She slumped and started praying in tongues.

They all prayed in tongues with her and after 15 minutes, his wife pulled her up, he blessed her and commanded every damage within her to be repaired.

He anointed her, had his wife take her to a room, where she slept for five hours straight.

When she woke up, she looked better.

She looked younger, refreshed and there was a glow about her; the kind of glow that only the Holy Spirit can give.

Let me say this: You can even have a father who is a General Overseer but without the confession of Christ, you will be tossed and bruised by the enemy.

This year, it isn't about going to church alone but building a relationship with Jesus and this can only be done by the Holy Spirit because He is also called the Spirit of Christ.

The Holy Spirit is beyond speaking in tongues. There's so much about Him but you need to start now.

Be it spirit husbands or spirit wives or even having a family in that realm, salvation is only by one person - Jesus!

Are you stuck in a strange reality?
Eating in dreams?
Having a family in the dream realm?
A constant figure who makes love to you in the dream?

A strange figure who causes you to ejaculate when you sleep? Those are not the realities of the Christ-kind. We can help you.

Send a DM.

Perhaps you have not received the Holy Spirit, please send a DM.

Happy New Year.
@earthworker

@threadreaderapp unroll