I’m so shocked that the American people don’t want to know the truth. The courts have not heard the allegations, they refuse to even hear them. The @FBI is not looking at the election fraud, neither is @TheJusticeDept @Scotus @JudiciaryGOP @senjudiciary Doesn’t that worry you??

> Obstructionists? The people obstructing this are your judicial system representatives, your political parties, the media & anyone who refuses to even look at it! How do you like how you will never know the truth about ANY election. They will just push forward & votes don\u2019t count
