But you couldn't pay for the Jobs I did for you.
Celebrities and this public showcasing of being nice.
You and your brand are evil!

I know this might not even blow up cos I have very little followers but I will just call on few sensible people I've noticed on here @SMiTHiE___ @Shawnifee @SavvyRinu. Your retweets would go a long way into creating awareness of hoe some of these so called celebrities are evil.

August last year, I messaged Lilo on Twitter here trying to secure a graphic designer Job on her team cos I really saw she lacked that and needed one. Fastfoward, she replied and told me to send my portfolio to her mail which I did.
I knew she was going to be really busy...

Cos it was just like few weeks after she left the house. She responded after a week or so and I started talking to someone on her team and she told me they'd just want to try me cos they have so many other people trying to secure that position on the team so they gave me a test..

They told me to make a design of a brand she's working on launching which I did and Lilo really liked it and approved it.
I was really excited as I'm just a student and just trying to make money for myself, I put into so much effort designing just trying to secure a spot....

A whole design ffs, I Just had about 2hrs or more. Lol I quickly ran down to buy fuel and started designing. I submitted it some minutes past 12am cos she reviewed it and there changes to be done. Sent it to her, didn't get any feedback, just went on her Instagram page and saw it

That was what I cared about as I didn't talk about getting paid yet.
She came on again, she wanted to launch Adire t-shirts, I made designs for them and sent them, her PA said she approved them and she posted them.
After I finished the Adire project which she named ADR by LILO...

Want to be tagging me on Instagram that Lilo has been asking for my IG handle so they'd b tagging my handles every if the design. I told them as much as I wanted to reach greater audience, I've spent money and even put in alot of effort in these projects and I need to get paid..

They stopped replying all of my messages after constant using my designs and didn't pay me a dime!
Mehn I felt really bad, I was down, I had to stay awake all night to get the list of the winners to make the design. Nights upon nights, my efforts, my money spent all for IG tags?!

My first project for her. She used all of my designs to reach her audience and didn't pay me for my hardwork. Absolute wickedness!

Cos I'm an up and coming brand, doesn't mean you should use my hardwork and don't pay for it. I really hope my vouve you is heard and I get justice fr.
Some of these celebrities do these to up and coming brands and it's really evil. Y'all that do this should fix up!

@chemicalbrodar @ItsChristy__ @fadererah_ @_theladymo @ManlikeMubbs @itzbasito @ADoseOfStella @kusssman @dieko_x @ThinTallTosin
Your RTs would go a long way getting my voice heard, Getting people know what some of these celebrities do so people can learn and not fall for it.

> I could remember going to switch on the generator at 2am and my dad waking up to shout at me for disturbing his sleep "cos of some job I probably won't get paid for" I just begged him and went on to work and I didn't even know it would be all for nothing! pic.twitter.com/K2HTw1n9yh

Made you really beautiful designs. But you just wanted to use them to reach your audience and tag me in Instagram!?!? Nah, that isn't it.

You using my designs to get to your audience to seek your clothes and you using my designs on your fanpage runned by your PA.
I have no intention to bring down your brand but I felt miserable cos I couldn't get justice for Months! Other proofs I couldn't get too.
